Proposals for ~~the~~ raising the standard of the Training School for mistresses at Coimbatore to the Upper secondary grade were submitted by the D.P.I. in 1910, in connection with the Scheme for the reorganizing of training schools for mistresses in this Presidency. After some preliminary investigation it was found that further information was necessary in regard to certain matters and in Memo. No. 1153-2, dated 27th August 1910, to report further on the point. This further report has not yet been received, and in reply to a ~~the~~ last reminder sent to him, the D.P.I. said that he was waiting for particulars called for from the Inspector of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle.

2. The following draft reply is suggested.

"The proposal referred to is under the consideration of Government and orders will be passed ~~on~~ on receipt of further information which has been called for ~~from~~ by the D.P.I."
