In the proposed revision of the Grant-in-aid Code will Government be pleased to consider the desirability of offering special inducements in aid of female education?

H.N.

The draft answer may be approved unless H.N. thinks it necessary to put a question of aid to female education for 1911-12 aid to female education for 1911-12

We must I think protect ourselves we are not going to undertake any general revision of the grant in aid code we have been saying.

No general revision of the grant in aid code is proposed to be undertaken. Certain portions of the code have been pointed out as perhaps requiring amendment & the Govt have promised that these portions will be examined & if necessary amended. The Govt will be pleased to

The foregoing question is put apparently 3 with reference to the observations made at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 13th instant by the Hon'ble Sir Murray Hamrick, to the effect that the question of amending the Grant-in-Aid Code was under consideration, particularly in regard to the grants payable to secondary and elementary schools. There appears to be no objection to consider in this connection whether any special inducements are necessary in aid of female education. The following reply is accordingly suggested:-

"The Hon'ble Member's suggestion will be "considered".

A.N.
The draft answer may be approved 27.3.11 unless H.M. thinks it inadvisable to go it = question of special aid to female education now for 27.3.11

We must I think protect ourselves we are not going to undertake any general revision of the grant in aid code we had better say.

"No general revision of the grant in aid code is proposed to be undertaken. Certain points in that code, certain portions of the code have been pointed out as perhaps requiring amendment & the Govt have promised that those portions will be examined & if necessary amended. The Govt are at present prepared to amend the Code as regards the provisions of it which deal with female education.

The question and answer as finally approved were as follows:—

REVISION OF
Grant-in-Aid
Code and female education.

Question 73. In the proposed revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code will Government be pleased to consider the desirability of offering special inducements in aid of female education?

Answer 73—

No general revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code is proposed to be undertaken.
Certain portions of the Code have been pointed out as perhaps requiring amendment and the Government have promised that those portions will be examined and if necessary amended. The Government at present are not prepared to amend the provisions of the Code which deal with female education.
