The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations has intimated to me that to meet an actual requirement of 12 Native Military Pupils this year as adver-tised in the Fort Saint George Gazette, he has received no applications from candidates qualified under Rule 4 of the "Rules and Regulations for the training of Hospital Assistants appended to G.O. No. 721, Educational, dated 30th October 1907. It has therefore become necessary to temporarily lower the standard of the educational qualifications in this case. I have, therefore, the honour to request the sanc-tion of Government with reference to Rule 5 of the above quoted Rules and Regulations, to the standard of the educa-tional qualifications being temporarily lowered in the case of Native Military Pupils so as to allow of those who produce evidence evidence of having studied in the VIth Form being admitted this year to the competitive examination in that grade.

2. As the 17th May 1911, has been fixed as the date ~~of~~ for holding the competitive examination, I solicit the favour of very early orders being passed on the subject.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Ferguson
