Madras,

dated, the 18th March 1911.

From P. L. Moore, Esq., J. C. S.,

President, Corporation of Madras,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department.
Local and Municipal Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government an application from V. Subramaniya Aiyar, a clerk of this office on Rs. 30/-, for exemption from the operation of the rules prescribing general educational qualifications for admission to the Special Test Examinations.

2. Under paragraph 46 of the Corporation Code, the clerk should pass the Account Test, Lower Grade, to be qualified qualified for an Accountant's post in the Corporation office but as he has not passed any of the examinations mentioned in paragraph 1 of the public service notification, dated 8th March 1910, he is not entitled to appear for this Test unless Government exempt him from the operation of the rules for admission to it. He is reported by the Engineer to be an intelligent and capable clerk, fit to discharge the duties of an Accountant.

I therefore recommend that he may be exempted from the Examination Rules to enable him to apply for the Account Test, Lower Grade.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

President.

To
The President
Corporation of Madras,
Through The Engineer,
Corporation of Madras

Sir, The humble Petitioner of V. Subramania

Shomeeth, that the Petitioner is a clerk in the Works Department of the Corporation of Madras on a salary of Rs 30/- & has port in a service of 13 years.

He was exempted by the Standing Committee in their Proceedings dated 20th May 1904 from the operation of Examination rules.

The Petitioner desires to apply for Special Test Examinations held by Government every year.

As the Petitioner will not be admitted to an Examination without being exempted by Government he humbly prays that the President will be good enough to recommend the Petitioner to Government to exempt him from the operation of Examination rules & to permit him to apply for Special Test Examinations.

I the petitioner

Your most obedient servant
V. Subramania aiy

NOTE FILE.

C. No. 620 From the President Corporation of Madras No 583, dated 18. 3. 1911.

SUBJECT. Recommending that V. Subrahmanya Aiyar a clerk on Rs 30 p.m. in the Madras Corporation office, be be permitted to appear for the Account test, Lower Grade.

L. The permission applied for is required under article 4 of the Special tests notification. As the Candidate is employed in the office of the Madras Corporation it is for the L & M department to decide whether the application is made in the public interests or in the interests of the individual concerned. Attention of that department may be solicited to the notes on page 16 of G.O. No 775 M.S. D. of M. 17th November 1908 wherein it was stated that permission should be given only in exceptional cases to men who possessed at least some educational attainments.

2. The file may be forwarded to the L & M department
w.o. for remarks.

Local and Huml. Dept.

The general principle laid down in the note with G.O. no. 745 Edl, 31st Nov. 1908, in regard to the grant of permission to unqualified candidates to appear for the special test examination is that the number of Candidates appearing for the special tests should not be swelled by special exemptions to unpassed men and that permission should be given only in exceptional cases to men who possess at least some educational attainments. The applicant in this case is reported by the Corporation Engineer to be an intelligent and capable clerk. He is already ^{drawing} ~~an allowance~~ Rs 30 per mensem and has put in a service of 13 years. The President also recommends the grant of the required permission. It may therefore be presumed that the clerk has some educational attainments and general qualifications and is thus fit to appear for special tests. But it does not appear that in the interests of the Corporation the exemption sought for is necessary or desirable. ~~There is no reason~~ It has not been alleged that qualified men are not available for appointment to posts for which the Account Test, however, has been prescribed as a special test qualification.

In order to improve the efficiency of the establishments employed by the Corporation, general educational and special test qualifications have recently been prescribed for the various appointments and the pay of them have also been increased to attract duly qualified men. In these circumstances it seems to be unnecessary to exempt an ^{passed} ~~unsuccessful~~ man from the operation of the ^{examination} rules and to promote him to a higher appointment for which duly passed men may be available. The President's recommendation appears to have been made purely on personal grounds and it is for consideration whether this Dept. should support it.
