To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

(Through Educational Department.

Sir, the Accountant-General)

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction, under Article 137 (a) of the Civil Account Code, a special advance of Rs50/- for the hostel attached to the Government Training School, Dindigul, similar to the advances sanctioned for the hostels attached to the Teachers' College, Saidapet, and the Government Training School, Villupuram, in G.Os. No. 374 Edl., dated 5th July 1901 and No. 478 Mis. Edl., dated 23rd June 1908.

2. The Inspector of Schools, 7th Circle, will be responsible for the advance.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

For Director of Public Instruction.

Forwarded to Government.

2 The advance now asked for, as well as those already sanctioned and referred to in the Director's letter, appears to me to be of the nature of a semi-permanent loan to a private institution, and as such requires the sanction of the Government of India under Article 116, Civil Account Code. The practice of refunding these advances in December and redrawing them in January of each year seems to be a device, which only thinly conceals their real nature as permanent advances. I would point out that permanent advances can only be granted under Article 77 to meet the contingent expenditure of Government officers.

In G.Os.No. 374 Educational, dated 5th July 1901 and No.478 Educational, dated 23rd June 1908, the Government sanctioned under article 137 (a) of the Civil Account Code, a special advance of Rs.400 ~~xx~~ to the hostel attached to the Teachers' college, Saidapet, and Rs.50 to the hostel attached to the Government Training school, Villupuram, subject to the condition that the advances should be refunded in full at the close of each year and redrawn at the commencement of the next succeeding year.

3. The Accountant-General points out that the ^{now} advance asked for, as well as those already ~~xx~~ sanctioned in G.Os No.374 Educational, dated 5th July 1901 and 478 Educational, dated 23rd June 1908, appear to him to be of the nature of a semi-permanent loan to a private institution, and as such requires the sanction of the Government of India under article 116 of the Civil Account Code. He observes that these advances are in fact 'permanent advances' and as such can only be granted under article 77 ^{C.A. Code} to meet the contingent expenditure of Government officers.

R

4. From the papers with G.O.No.374 Educational, dated 5th July 1901, it will be seen that originally the Director of Public Instruction asked for a permanent advance for the hostel attached to the Teachers' college, Saidapet, but that the then Accountant-General (Mr. Brigstocke) pointed out that no permanent advance was admissible and suggested the grant of a special advance under article 137(a) ^{of the Account Code}. As the Accountant-General now points out, an advance under article 137 (a) to be drawn in January and refunded in December (to be redrawn again in the succeeding January) is really of the nature of a permanent ^{advance} and as such cannot be sanctioned by this Government.

5. It is for consideration whether an application may be made to the Government of India to sanction the advance or whether the Director of Public Instruction may be informed that the advance required cannot be sanctioned under the rules.

7A.
3-3-11

The payment of a temporary advance under Art 137(a) of the Civil account Code. which was suggested by the Accountant General in his endorsement on G.O. 374 Ed. dt 5th July 1901, was only a device to get over the prohibition in Art. 77 against the grant of a a permanent advance. The A.G. seems to think that the advance may be made with the previous sanction of the Govt of India under Art. 116 of the C.A. Code. It does not appear that it is worth while going up to India for this. The sum of Rs 50 may be obtained by collecting an advance of one or two rupees from each student on his entering the hostel.

The proposal is to grant an advance of Rs 50/- to the hostel attached to the Govt. Training School, Sindigal, subject to the condition that the advance should be refunded at the close of each year and redrawn at the commencement of the next succeeding year.

Similar advances were sanctioned in the following orders:—

R (1) G.O. 374 Edcl. 9.5.7.01 — Rs. 400/- for the hostel attached to the Teachers' College, Saidapet.

S (2) G.O. 478 Edcl. 9.13.6.08 — Rs. 50/- for the hostel attached to the Govt. Training School, Villupuram.

This end on p. 5 of G.O.
374 Edcl. 9.5.7.01

In the first of these cases, the Asst. Genl (Mr. Brigstocke) objected to the advance being treated as a permanent advance under article 77 C.A.C., but suggested that there was no objection to Govt. sanctioning it as a special advance under article 137(a). Both the above cases were accordingly dealt with under the latter article. In the present case Mr. Newmarch points out that the advance proposed is in the nature of a semi-permanent loan to a private institution and as such requires the sanction of the Govt. under article 116 C.A.C. ~~Both~~ the 2: Both the Asst. Genls are agreed that article 77 does not apply. The question therefore is one of the interpretation of article 137(a). The Comptroller Genl. has recently ruled p 2 C.F.

(file under separate disposal)

that the powers of local Govts. under this article do not extend to advances of an unusual nature, and Mr. Newmarch's objection seems to be based on this ruling. The Govt. have practically accepted the Comptroller-General's interpretation, but ~~the Govt.~~ have asked the G. of S. for powers in respect of such advances as for the purchase of horses, tents and tent equipment either under article 137 (a) or by the insertion in article 137 of a separate and special authorization. of the G. of S. sanction this delegation it will not cover the present case, and it is for Educational to consider whether their sanction should be obtained for the advance applied for under article 116 of the code.

The wardens of these hotels are, it is understood, ex officio Govt. servants. There seems no objection to making an outright grant to the Hotel Committees of these petty amounts, with the condition that the Warden of each hotel.

should utilize the money in the same way in which a permanent advance is made use of in a Govt. Office.

As there are no committees in connection with any of these hostels and no 'wardens' have been appointed to be in charge of them it is not possible to act on the suggestion made by the Financial Dept. It is for consideration whether the suggested grants may be made to the hostels themselves on the condition that the head of the school or college concerned should utilize the money in the same way in which a permanent advance is utilized; or whether the D.P.D.

J.A. may be instructed to have committees formed for the management of the hostels referred to, and to appoint wardens and then to appoint wardens, where possible, and then to apply to Government for a grant grant from Provincial funds equal to the permanent advance required.

In the case of the Teachers' College the Principal or the Principal wherever is resident is superintendent of the hostels. In future the Principal will be president and I can alter the rule to make him superintendent of the hostels. In the training schools where there is a hostel the head master - always in office in charge of it and - called 1 that Superintendent

We must show therefore no mark to the
