The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

Re-Ramakrishna Library,
Tulsi Totam, Bangalore City.

I beg to submit the following facts for your kind -- consideration and favourable orders.

The above Library was inaugurated on 24th April 1910
under the auspices of Sir P.N. Krishna Murti, K.C.I.E., Retired Dewan of Mysore. From private benefactions we have been able to make a collection of about 500 volumes of Hindu religious literature and it is considered that the usefulness of the -- institution will be considerably enhanced by adding to it the Oriental publications of the Madras Government. I beg therefore to approach you with a request that you may be graciously pleased to order the supply gratis to this Library of a -- complete set of the oriental publications of the Madras Government that have been issued up to date as well as of those that may issue from time to time hereafter.

I beg also to forward to you herewith for your --- perusal copies of certificates from such eminent men as Sir.
P.N. Krishna Murti, K.C.I.E., and Mr. V.N. Narasimmiyengar, Retired Palace Controller, who have spoken highly of the -- usefulness

usefulness of the above institution.

Hoping that favourable orders will be passed by -- you in the matter at an early date.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Copy of certificate from Sir P. N. Krishnamurti, K.C.I.E., Retd. Dewan of Mysore.

I have great pleasure in certifying that the Rama-krishna Library attached to the Tulsi Totam, Gopala Krishnaswami Temple is a very useful appendage to this useful and popular institution. It came into existence from the well considered munificence of the representatives of the well known family of the late venerated Bukshi Venkatacharyar and is well cared for by Mr. B. K. Garudachar of the City Mart, the Manager of the Temple, who is anxious to see it assume larger proportions.
There are about 400 volumes of Hindu Theological literature.
The Library deserves the support of the Madras Government and to obtain copies of its Sanskrit Publications.

31st January 1911.

Sd. P. N. Krishnamurti

Copy of certificate from V.N.Narasimmiyengar, Esq., Retd. Palace Controller, Mysore Govt.

The temple of Krishnaswami, enshrined in Tulsi Totam, is a very popular religious institution situated in the heart of the city of Bangalore. Under the present efficient management it has been considerably improved and efforts are unsparingly made to adapt the building and the services in it to modernism and to the purer elements of the Visishtadvaitam creed.

The managers have likewise taken the opportunity to form the nucleus of a Library of religious works, embracing not only the creed of which Sri Ramanujacharya was the illustrious mouthpiece, but also others as far as possible. It is their laudable intention to expand the Library so as to make it comprehensive and useful to that part of the public endowed with an enquiring and religious turn of mind. Contributions of books will be welcome; but private benefactions of this nature cannot be expected to amount to much under the present conditions of Hindu society.

I trust therefore that the Mysore and Madras Governments may be induced to generously present to this Library such books and publications as are issued from time to time under their authority. The Oriental Library at Mysore is, I believe, issuing certain publications gratis to men of light and leading and to religious and charitable Institutions.

NOTES.

C. No. 368 From the manager, Ramakrishna Library, No. 13, dated 13th Feb^y 1911.
Bangalore.

SUBJECT. application for the free supply of the publications of the Govt. Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras.

The manager of the Ramakrishna Library, Bangalore, requests that the library may be supplied, free of cost, with a complete set of the oriental publications of the Madras Govt. published up to date as well as with copies of the future publications.

2. No information is available as to whether the library is open to the public irrespective of the Caste or Creed of the persons, whether it is a free library &c. &c. From the copy of the testimonial on page 4 of C.F. it appears that it is "a library of religious works" and the intention of the promoters of the library is to make it "useful to that part of the public endowed with an enquiring and religious turn of mind."

3. The Govt. Oriental Manuscripts Library, Madras, is now publishing certain Sanskrit books. They are distributed, free of cost, to persons and institutions interested in Sanskrit learning according to a distribution list issued by the Govt. of India. The latest of such lists is given in G.O. No. 793-4 Ed. 5th December 1906. If the Ramakrishna Library really deserves the help it applies for at the hands of Govt. there is no objection to its being supplied with the publications of the Oriental Manuscripts Library. But there are are no materials ^{before} ~~available~~ Govt. to find out whether the library is ~~a~~ deserving of any help. It is for consideration whether the application may be referred to the D.P. I for remarks. He may be able to find out the status of the library thro' the Inspecting officers.
