Read the following letter from R. Morris Esq.,

Collector of Anantapur--to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, B & G No. 309 dated 18th March 1911.

Yadiki Qasim Sahib, 5th Correspondence Clerk of my office on Rs. 45/- has passed Revenue Lower, Account Lower and Precise Writing Special Test, and has undergone Survey training and has acted as Revenue Inspector for more than one year. As he has passed only the old Middle School Examination in the 1st Class, he is no longer eligible to appear for any of of the Special Test Examinations. In order to qualify for further promotion, he must pass Translation Lower Telugu and the Criminal Lower Test. He now applies to be exempted from passing these - Special Tests so that he may be eligible for promotion.

2. There are very few non-brahmins in Government Service in this district and of these, very few are qualified by Examination for higher appointments. Qasim Sahib is a Muhammadan, a class which is still less represented, and he is a man of good family. He has served as Revenue Inspector for seven years, during which time, his work has always been reported satisfactory. I have the honour to recommend that the Government may be moved to permit him to appear for the Translation Lower and Criminal Lower Tests for ~~the~~ next two years, if permanent exemption is not possible, so that the number of Muhammadans in the higher appointments in the district may be increased.

Reference No. 1588/11-1, dated 10th April 1911.

Submitted to Government.

2. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation, but considers that the clerk's permanent exemption from the tests is unnecessary at present.

C. No. 930 From the Board of Revenue No. 1588/11 dated 10-4-1901

SUBJECT. Recommending that Yadiki Qasim Sahib 5th Correspondence Clerk on Rs 45 p.m. in the Collector's office Muntapur, may be permitted to appear for the Translation and the Criminal Judicial tests, Lower Grade.

In the circumstances stated in para. 2 of the Collector's letter, it is for consideration whether the Board's recommendation that Yadiki Qasim Sahib may be permitted to appear for the Translation and the Criminal Judicial tests, Lower Grade, may be accepted.

2. The Candidate recommended by the Collector is a Middle-school first class man who ^{has} ~~appears to have~~ passed the Revenue and Account tests, Lower Grade, and the Precise Writing test and the concession allowed by note (6) of art. 46 of the Special tests notification of 1901. Under that ^{article} ~~Yadiki~~ ^{Qasim} Sahib was eligible to appear for the Translation test, Lower Grade, until 1st January 1902, but not for the Criminal Judicial test, Lower Grade. The permission now applied for is required under art. 46 of the latest Special tests notification and note (2) to that article. ~~Yadiki~~ Qasim Sahib is at present qualified for a Revenue Inspector's post and if he passes the Translation test, Lower Grade, and the Criminal Judicial test, Lower Grade, he will be qualified to hold ^(almost all) ~~any~~ posts in the Revenue Dept up to that of Muzur Sarishtadar.

3. The Revenue Department may be requested to state whether the application has the support of that department.

It is stated that Gadiki Qasim Sahib has "acted as Revenue Inspector for more than one year", but in para. 2 it is stated that "he has served as Revenue Inspector for seven years". This discrepancy seems also to require explanation.

The Qasim Sahib is 42 years old and has put in 21 years' service. In view of the difficulty of obtaining suitable Non-Brahmins for higher posts in the District, the Board's recommendation to permit the applicant to appear for Translation and Criminal Judicial posts, lower grade, may be supported in Revenue.
