117. In view of the G.O. authorizing Collectors to recruit 75 per cent. of the appointments in the higher service from the upper subordinate service, will the Government be pleased to allow those already in the upper subordinate service on 1st April 1911, provided they are at least matriculates to appear for the special tests, higher grade, irrespective of the higher qualifications lately prescribed?

In G.O. No. 682 Rev., dt 11.3.11 Government sanctioned a scheme for the Division of the Subordinate Grades of the Revenue Dept. into two Divisions, upper and lower, with separate recruitment for each. Appointments on Rs 35 p.m. including the Revenue Inspectorate form, under the scheme, the lowest rank in the upper division and recruitment to this division is confined to graduates. In para 7 of G.O. No. 682 Rev., dt 11.3.11 Government however directed that three-fourths of the vacancies occurring in appointments on Rs 35 including the Revenue Inspectorate should for the present be filled by the promotion of men who were already in service at the date of the introduction of the scheme i.e. 1st April 1911. The Honble Member asks whether Government will allow those in the ^{lower} division on 1st April 1911 to appear for the special test, higher grade, provided they are at least matriculats.

2. Matriculats Can appear only for the following special tests :-

- (i) Translation Test, Higher Grade
- (ii) Account Test, Higher Grade
- (iii) Revenue Test, Lower Grade.

They cannot appear for

- (i) Revenue, Higher
- (ii) Criminal, Lower & Higher
- (iii) Penmanship Test

unless they are permitted to do so by Government.
There seems to be no reason why a general permission should be given as suggested by the Honble Member.
Individual cases may be dealt with on their merits as at present. With these remarks the file may now be transferred to the Educational Dept. C.O.

I don't see that the division into upper & lower grades has any bearing on the question of demanding certain educational qualifications from men permitted to appear for special tests

or

I agree with Mr. Gwynn's note - But the matter seems to be one for Edl to deal with, & the file may be sent to that Dept as proposed.
