From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 26th January 1911, No. 8019/10.

The alterations proposed by the Director of Public Instruction are necessary and may be accepted. But in view of the opinion of the Advocate-General (page 2 of G.O., No. 148, Educational, dated 13th March 1902) that the conditions of a charitable trust once definitely settled cannot be altered except by an order of the Court or under the provisions of the Charitable Endowments Act, it is submitted that the Hensman Prize Endowment fund may be vested in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments in the first instance. The proposed alterations may then be carried out in the rules.

2. A draft memorandum requesting the Director of Public Instruction to submit two draft notifications, one for vesting the property in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and the other for settling a scheme for its administration, is submitted below for approval. The trust is now administered by the Principal of the Government College, Mangalore, and the Inspector of schools, VIII Circle—vide paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 319, Educational, dated 3rd June 1899.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—1-2-11.

What is the Intermediate Course? Is it a preparation for the F.A.? And is the Matriculation not necessary for it? Please put up the new regulations about the School leaving certificates and their effect.

G. F. PADDISON—2-2-11.

Matriculates proceeding to a degree are required during the 1st and 2nd years to undergo courses of study in Regulation 178 on page 21 of G.O., No. 841, Educational, dated 27th December 1906. certain specified subjects and this is called the "Intermediate Course". It is not a preparation for the F.A., but it is an examination that has taken the place of the old F.A. examination, which no longer exists.

2. Before the introduction of the scheme for the award of Secondary school leaving certificates, the Matriculation examination was the qualification required in the case of candidates entering the Intermediate Course. But since the introduction of that scheme the Syndicate have decided that "holders of completed secondary school leaving certificates, issued under the authority of the Government of Madras or such other authority as may have been accepted by the Syndicate, may be admitted by the head of an affiliated college if he be satisfied as to their fitness, to a University course of study, and

"when so admitted shall be registered as Matriculates of the University". The Matriculation examination is not therefore now necessary for entrance to the Intermediate Course.

3. The regulations about the School leaving certificates will be found on pages 39 and 40 of G.O., No. 427, Educational, dated 21st July 1909. The scheme for the award of secondary school leaving certificates has done away with the Matriculation examination. The effect of this is that the rule which lays down that the Hensman Prize "shall be awarded to the student who passes the Matriculation examination in the first class" requires modification. Again, as, under the scheme for the award of the school leaving certificates a candidate cannot be said to have passed or failed in an examination, the words "in first class" in line 2 of rule 2 and in rule 6 on page 2 of G.O., No. 319, Educational, dated 3rd June 1899, also require modification as proposed by the Director of Public Instruction.
