No. 167. P.

Station Ootacamund,

Dated the 5th May 1911.

From (Name) A.Y.C. Campbell Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., (Designation) Private Secretary to H.E. the Governor.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I am desired to transfer to you for disposal by the Government the enclosed memorial from K.R. Venkatarama
 Aiyar, Journalist, Tiruvaniokil, Trichinopoly, dated 3rd
 May 1911.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Private Secretary.

To,

His Excellency

Sir Arthur Lawley,

K. C. M. C., S. C. J. E.

Governor in Council,

OOTACAMUND.

The humble memorial of K. R. VENKATARAMA AIYAR,
Journalist Thiruvanihoil,
TRICHINOPOLY.

Most Respectfully Sheweth:

That the times are complex and many sided, rife with movements of all kinds.

That some of the newspapers introduce these movements among students and disturb their atmosphere which ought to be calm, warp their judgments which ought to be unbiassed and unprejudiced.

That enthusiasms are often wild and prove contagious and turn students into ignorant fanatics.

That in the bewildering of medley of many voices, dexterous wagging of the tongue alienates young and unwary minds from truth, justice, nobility and true heroism.

That the student does not study, is ready to be dazzled and blinded.

That these times call for a voice addressed only to Students to educate them on the public questions on the principles of truth and justice.

That the voice should reach into the ears of Students from week to week.

That the memorialist proposes to edit and publish a series of letters to Students written by competent men interested in Students.

That the second number and the following numbers should be on Loyalty and Coronation etc.

That these letters should be sown broadcast through out the land, be circulated in tens of thousands, and be distributed free;

That the memorialist appeals to the Government for patronage and assistance; if they think that his work deserves patronage.

That impressed with the beneficence of the Government, impressed with the character of the times, with their danger for the young minds of Students, thus impressed with a necessity for a publication which will be for the peculiar use of Students, the memorialist proposes to edit the series.

That this series cannot be effective unless widely circulated;

That the widest circulation can be reached only if circulated free.

That a free circulation means a large outlay though no cost will be too great for so worthy a purpose.

That the cause is noble being the cause of Students, the cause is just, being for law, the cause is necessary, such being the character of the times, the cause is useful as it has secured the co-operation of competent men.

That the memorialist prays that the Government will be pleased to extend their valuable patronage for his work on behalf of Students.

For which act of kindness, as in duty bound, he will ever pray.

I have the honour to remain,

Your Excellency's most Obedient Servant.
