I am of opinion that the book is a suitable publication for distribution among schools & colleges. It is written in a very easy style, within the reach of even the primary school boys. Boys and girls in the standards can grasp the meaning without assistance. I have no doubt that <sup>this</sup> is just the book for village officers, primary schools & girls' schools.

I think that the book might be distributed to the Government primary schools and elementary schools and to the inspecting staff in the Telugu districts. For this purpose 350 copies would be required. The author might also be requested to send his copy home for the opinion of the Text Book Committee as to the suitability of the book as a reading book in elementary schools.
