NOTES.

C. No. 1355 From the P.P. 9 No 2050/11 dated 8. 6. 1911.

SUBJECT. Permission to Mr. Middlemarch to undertake the work of one of the agents to the Lawrence Asylum Press.

cf. para. 7 of office note on p. 2 of G.O. 832 Ed. 21-12-08

the other two are:-
(1) Archdeacon Cox.
(2) Col. Formby.

The Committee of the Lawrence Asylum, Ootacamund, and the Trustees of the Lawrence Asylum Press^{Madras}. The press is managed by three agents who are appointed by the trustees. Mr. Middlemarch applies for permission to accept the office of one of the agents to the trustees which has been offered to him. The office has no emoluments attached to it. A similar permission was granted to Mr. Fisher, the Superintendent of the Govt. Press, in G.O. No. 1 Ed. 4th January 1905. Mr. Fisher resigned the office in 1910 - vide G.O. 144 Ed. 21st March 1910. Since then no Govt. officer has been an agent.

2. A draft order according to the sanction applied for is submitted for approval.

Hm.

I believe the Committee could not get any member of the business community in Madras to take up the thankless task. Mr. Middlemarch is a good alternative.

16/6/11

I have no objection to Mr. Middlemarch.

acting - But is he in place of Col. Frouby on Mr. Gordon Fraser?
I think Gov. Sir. Kinn who are the trustees now. Mr. Gordon Fraser
& Col. Frouby have both gone -
Please ask.

H.M.

(before this file reaches me)
I saw Mr. Padfield this morning.
The present trustees are the Archdeacon & Col. Frouby. Mr. Middlemost takes the other vacancy. The Archdeacon wants to resign (!) but has not definitely done
so. The Committee is dissatisfied with existing arrangements & wishes to have a larger share of control over the trustees. General Bond is, I understand, taking an active part in a movement
for revision, the essential idea being, I believe, that the Trustees should be a sub-committee of the Committee. I will write and ask for definite information
when H.M. returns this file.

We must be careful. what we do in the matter. The dispute between the Committee & the Agent is of long standing - & I think Sp. has before now laid down clearly what they considered Sp. & the relation position of these bodies. Don't let us do anything to show that we want a change. If the Committee or Agent desire to disturb present arrangements let them come up. We don't suppose that they Sp. do so. Forster has gone & I suppose we shall get some suggestion as to filling up his place. Probably a member of the B. would be the best app.
