G.O., No. 232, Educational, dated 21st April 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning proposition statement for raising to Rs. 100—10—200 the pay of the Personal Assistant to the Superintendent of the Government Museum and Sub-Librarian of the Connemara Public Library.

II

Letter—from J. R. HENDERSON, Esq., M.B.C.M., F.L.S., Superintendent, Government Museum.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 11th May 1911.

No.—339.

Referring to G.O., No. 232, Educational, dated 21st April 1911, raising the pay of my Personal Assistant, who is also Sub-Librarian of the Connemara Public Library, from Rs. 100—5—150 to Rs. 100—10—200, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to allow effect being given to the revised scale from the date on which the present incumbent joined the appointment, viz., 1st September 1908, subject to the condition that the claim to arrears of pay thereby arising shall not extend further back than 1st April last.

2. As stated in my letter disposed of in the Government Order referred to, Mr. Thurston and myself both formed a high opinion of the character and capability of the present incumbent M. R. Ry. P. Etirajulu Nayudu. He has done very good work here and has been of great assistance to me in the administration of the Museum and Connemara Public Library. He has also had a considerable amount of additional work without extra remuneration in connection with the Marine Aquarium. He is at present drawing Rs. 110, having risen to that grade in September 1910, and would rise to Rs. 115 in September next under the old scale. Under the revised scale, however, he will not get his first increment till April 1912. My present proposal, if sanctioned, would enable him to draw Rs. 120 from 1st April last and rise to Rs. 130 in September next. Government having been pleased to agree with me that the old scale of pay was inadequate and increased the emoluments of the post, I have the honour respectfully to express the hope that, in recognition of my Personal Assistant's good work, they will also be pleased to approve of my present recommendation.

3. The increased cost involved in the current year amounts to Rs. 170 and can be met from anticipated savings in my budget grant. The necessary reappropriation statement is enclosed in duplicate.

Endt. No. P.A. 2.-2579, dated 20th May 1911.

Forwarded.

2. Under articles 158 and 157-A of the Civil Service Regulations, the initial pay of the officer in the revised scale is Rs. 110 from 1st April 1911 and he can draw the pay of the next higher stage, viz., Rs. 120 on the 1st April 1912.

No. 446, EDUCATIONAL, 6TH JULY 1911.

3. The present proposal which is intended to secure for the officer an initial pay of Rs. 120 from 1st April 1911 and also the next stage of Rs. 130 from 1st September 1911 will, therefore, amount to the grant of increment in advance of the due date which is contrary to the principle of progressive pay (vide article 153 of the Civil Service Regulations).

4. It is however open to Government to fix the initial pay of the officer at whatever amount it considers proper (Government of India letter No. P. 5340, Finance and Commerce, dated 12th December 1893, embodied on page 26 of the Madras Supplement to Civil Service Regulations correction slip No. XII, dated 5th August 1908).

A. NEWMARCH,
Offg. Accountant-General.

To the Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Order—No. 446, Educational, dated 6th July 1911.

The Government consider that it will suffice to allow the Sub-Librarian to draw pay at the rate of Rs. 120 per mensem from 1st September 1911, and to count time for future increments from that date. This arrangement will accordingly be sanctioned as a special case.

2. The Accountant-General states that the proposal of the Superintendent to give retrospective effect to the revised scale is inadmissible under article 153 of the Civil Service Regulations but that it is open to Government to fix the initial pay of the officer at whatever amount they consider proper—vide correction slip No. XII on page 26 of the Madras Supplement to Civil Service Regulations.

3. If effect is given to the revised scale from the 1st April 1911 the result will be that the individual concerned will not get in September 1911 his next increment (Rs. 115) under the old scale, which he would otherwise have got, but will have to wait on his present pay (Rs. 110) until April 1912. He will thus lose from September to April the increment of Rs. 5 per mensem, but he will be compensated in part by the increment of Rs. 10 per month from April 1912. In these circumstances, it is for consideration whether the initial pay of the officer under the revised scale may be fixed at Rs. 120, that is, whether he may be permitted to draw salary at this rate from 1st April 1911. There seems, however, to be no sufficient justification for allowing him a salary of Rs. 120 from 1st April 1911 and of Rs. 130 from September next as proposed by Mr. Henderson.

Put up precedents please.

M. S. MASCARENHAS—1-6-11.

For a precedent, please see paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 292, Public, dated 22nd March 1911, in which the Government have permitted C. Venkatarama Aiyar of the office of the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor to draw Rs. 50 in a scale of Rs. 40— $\frac{1}{2}$ —75.

T.K.—6-6-11.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—6-6-11.

The case of Mr. Maiden of the Port office has been called for from the Madras office but has not yet been received. The case of the Sergeant of the General hospital, which was disposed of in G.O., No. 1177, Public, dated 15th December 1910, and that of the Superintendent of the Madura Technical Institute dealt with in G.O., No. 3647, Revenue, dated 18th November 1910, are submitted.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—15-6-11.

The Assistant now gets Rs. 110. Under the old scheme, he will get Rs. 115 in September next but if the new scheme is applied, he will continue to draw Rs. 110 till April and then get Rs. 120. He might be allowed to get Rs. 120 from September next as a special case. There seems to be no reason to sanction this pay from last April and Rs. 130 from September next as proposed by the Superintendent.

M. S. MASCARENHAS—16-6-11.

I think it would not be unreasonable in applying the new scale to let the personal assistant get Rs. 120 with effect from September next, i.e., when his next increment under the old scale would have fallen due.

L. DAVIDSON—17-6-11.

Yes I agree. Let him get Rs. 120 from September next and then he will get his next increment in September 1912.

M. H[AMMICK]—19-6-11.

The draft order placed below is submitted for approval. If approved, it may be forwarded to the Financial department u.o. for acceptance.
