G.O., No. 131, Educational, dated 3rd March 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning certain alterations in the University regulations relating to Intermediate examinations.

II

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 27th June 1911.
No.—1759.

With reference to this office letter No. 341, dated 11th February 1911, submitting for the sanction of Government alterations in Regulations 179 I, 185, 186, 187, and 388, and also with reference to G.O., No. 131, Educational, dated 3rd March 1911, sanctioning the alterations proposed in those Regulations, I have the honour to state that, by a clerical error, which is much regretted, the alterations in Regulation 179 I, which were adopted by the Senate, were incorrectly communicated to Government.

2. The alterations in Regulation 179 I which accompanied this office letter under reference were those which were originally laid before the Senate for consideration at its meeting on 3rd February 1911. The Senate adopted the proposed alterations in an amended form, but the amendments, by an oversight, were not incorporated in the copy of the alterations which were communicated to Government.

3. The amendments to the proposed alterations in Regulation 179 I adopted by the Senate are—

(a) that the words “in rhetoric and composition” be inserted between the words “(3) such instructions and exercises” and the words “as may be expected to develop”;

(b) that the word “concisely” be added after the word “clearly” in clause (3).

4. I have the honour, therefore, to request that Government will be pleased to accord its sanction to the alterations in Regulation 179 I in the form in which these alterations were finally adopted by the Senate. Copies of the Senate Agenda for 3rd February 1911, showing original motions and the amendments proposed thereto, and of the minutes of the meeting are enclosed with a corrected copy of the alterations to the Regulations adopted by the Senate, for the information of Government.

ENCLOSURE.

That the following alterations be made in the regulations:—

For Regulation 179, I, substitute “I. English Language and Literature.

For this course books in English prose and poetry shall be set.

In setting these books, two objects shall be kept in view—

(a) the improvement of the students' knowledge of the English language and of its literature;

(b) the development, by training them to read with ease and discrimination, of their ability to extend the range of their knowledge.

The course of study shall consist in—

(1) The detailed study of certain of the set books.

(2) The perusal, as distinct from detailed study of the other set books.

Certain of the set books which are to be studied in detail may be retained from year to year.

The books which are not to be studied in detail shall be prescribed every year immediately after the publication of the results of the Matriculation Examination.

(3) Such instruction and exercises in rhetoric and composition as may be expected to develop the students' powers of understanding English and writing it clearly, concisely and correctly. This instruction should include the following topics:

The paragraph as the unit of prose composition. The sentence as a constituent portion of the paragraph. The period and the loose sentence. Unity, balance and emphasis in relation to paragraph and sentence. Logical sequence of sentences and paragraphs and explicit references to preceding paragraphs, as securing coherence in an essay.”
