What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result.

Please see remarks in the last column.

Recommendation of the Head of the Department.

Remarks.

Applications from passed men have been received; but all the applicants are quite inexperienced and are not considered suitable for the post. Seshayya whom it is now proposed to appoint has been found to be an efficient man well up in his work. The Executive Engineer recommends him as the most suitable for the appointment.

C. No. 1745 From the Superintending Engineer, No. 13415, dated 20.6.1901.

SUBJECT. Exemption of P. Deshayya from the Sub-Overseer and Surveyor test.

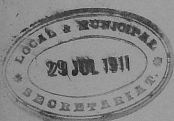

In Col. 10 of the application it is stated that applications have been received from passed Candidates but the all the applicants are quite inexperienced and are not considered suitable for the post. It is for consideration whether the action of the Superintending Engineer in rejecting the applications of passed Candidates and, at the same time, in recommending an unpassed Candidate for exemption is justifiable and whether the exemption applied for may be granted.

2. A perusal of the Hon'ble Sir George Forbes' remarks on page 2 of Gono. 419 Dtd 15th July 1909 and on page 2 of Gono. 244 Dtd 9th May 1910 is solicited.

Filed in Box No 2.

It is submitted that there is not a suitable case for exemption.

Of course applicants are inexperienced. Every Officer has to take inexperienced men in the lowest grades & train them - No exemption can be granted.
