Public Department

Note by the Chief Secretary, dated 20th May 1911.

The Wednesday Review is a sober, well conducted paper, deserving of support by the Government. Mr. Raja Ram Rao tells me that he is at present losing Rs. 100 a month over it, and though it is impossible for Government to subscribe for enough copies to make up that deficit, we might take more than the single copy now subscribed for.

The Chief Secretary may take one copy and Members and other departments will be asked whether they require copies. I would also address the High Court and other Heads of departments on the subject.

The Director of Public Instruction and the Principal Librarian, Commensal Public Library, may be requested to state whether any and if so how many copies of the Review will be required by each of them.

If the Westray Review is on the lines of the English halfpenny
monthlies and I believe in the case copies might be supplied to the first grade art colleges and to the technical colleges and school of arts
in all nine.

I know the Wednesday Review thinks that a copy might be supplied to the Commonwealth Public Library.
