It is proposed to strengthen this staff as below:

	R

Applying Sir William Meyer's ~~proposals~~ principles, it is submitted that the last four posts up to Rs 30 p.m. may be considered to be those dealing with work of a purely routine character for which industry and accuracy are the chief qualifications. Hence Revenue may, it is submitted, agree to ~~the~~ N Sundara Rao being exempted permanently for employment in the St. Fort office in posts carrying salary not exceeding Rs 30 p.m. He has put in 8 years' service & his work is reported to be satisfactory. He is acquainted with the work in all the branches of the office.

If it is admitted that posts carrying pay up to 30 rupees in Ben. offices require only industry & accuracy and that such posts should not be open ~~only~~ to unqualified men, then it seems time to revise the examination qualification rules. It is hardly credible that passed candidates could not be got in within 2

The certificate ^{in let 8 on page 2 of C.F.} is qualified by the word "suitable"
The case for exemption seems weak

I agree with U.S. There seems no sufft case for exemption. The man is not even a non-Brahmin!
