I have the honour to forward an application for exemption for employment as an European Sub-Inspector of A. H. Lynsdale.

There are still vacancies for European Sub-Inspectors. This is a very promising young man, son of Mr. Herbert Lynsdale of the Jail department. He will be almost 18 in October and physically he is very well developed. His father has removed him from school, so further delay in appointing ^{him} is to be deprecated. By the time he has passed through Vellore School and a period of practical instruction, he will be mature enough for work. He is known to

to the Hon'ble Mr. Cardew. If the present application is sanctioned, the candidate will be sent to the Vellore School in October.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Archibald

2	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment i.e. whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.	Sub-Inspector of Police. Substantive.
3	The pay of the post and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.	Rs. 75 to 125 in three grades.
4	The examination from which exemption is sought.	Matriculation Examination.
5	The period for which the appointment is expected to last.	Permanent.
6	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	1/1/11 to 31/12/11
7	Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	First application.
8	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result.	Advertisements have been sent to newspapers but without success.
9	Recommendation of the Head of the Department.	A very promising young man. The Reverend H. Pakenham Walsh says of him:- "Archie Lynsdale has been two years in this school, and leaves from the VIII Standard. His character at school has been most excellent, and as a Monitor in the Boarding House, and Non-Commissioned officer in the Cadet Corps he has done very good work. His influence has always been good, and he has lived a straight, clean, manly life as a School-boy. He is of average intelligence in work, and diligent in studies, and he is good at all outdoor games and sports. I believe him to be an earnest Christian and a true gentleman." Vide also my covering letter.
10	Remarks.	This recommendation is solely in the interests of departmental administration.

The ^{chief} objection to the Exemption of the last is his age, but the Commr. says he is physically well developed, and of the time he has passed too 'tender' with the nature except for work. But before Jnd. agrees, I should like to know if there are any page 24 7

No precedents are traceable in the office for the grant of exemption under the age rules. 20. 5. 74 ^{min} 25. 10. 10. seems to be a case in which exemption was refused for the time being, on account of the candidate being under-aged. Would the Hon^{ble} Mr. Cardew kindly advise whether he considers this youth is a fit person to be exempted, having regard to his age and intellectual capacity for immediate appointment as Prob^{ly} Subst of Police, or whether the Committee should be asked to renew the application a year hence.

This young man came to see me last cold weather accompanied by his father, who is permanent Superintendent of the Palamcottah St Tail & who is now on leave, suffering from an advanced stage of diabetes. It is owing, I suppose, to this illness ~~that~~ which might prove fatal at any moment (there had been already one attack of coma which usually the end) that the son has been removed from school. The boy looks a good deal older than his age & is a smart & active looking youth & quite fit, I think, to enter the Vellore Police school. Mr Pakenham Walsh's testimonial speaks for itself, & I would certainly support the application for exemption. The father has 32 years' very good service, & I think this also merits some consideration.
