To the Private Secretary to The Under Secretary of State for India.

Sir,

I beg to enclose herein an application for appointment to the Assistant Principalship of the Madras Law College, in case that post falls vacant.

As I am leaving England for India tomorrow (21st July, 1911), I request any communication in connexion therewith may, for the present, be addressed to the care of

Messrs. Thomas Cook & Son, Ludgate Circus,
London, E.C.

They have been instructed to forward my letters to India.

I remain, etc.,

To the Private Secretary to
The Under Secretary of State for India.

Sir,

I learn that the Assistant Principalship of the Madras Law College is likely soon to fall vacant. In that case, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the said post, my qualifications for the same being as follows:-

I am a graduate in Arts and Law of the University of Madras, having taken the Law Degree in 1895.
Moreover, I am a Bachelor of Civil Law of the University of Oxford and a Barrister-at-Law of the Inner Temple. I may add that I have practised law as a pleader in India for over seven years, before I left India for England in September 1908.

I beg also to enclose for your perusal, copies of two certificates given me by two of the Professors under whom I worked at Oxford.

If my services be accepted, I shall endeavour to the utmost of whatever abilities I may possess to give satisfaction to the Government.

I beg, etc.,
(Sd.) K. Raman Menon

Copy of Professor Dicey's Certificate.

"Dear Menon,

I have the greatest pleasure in certifying to your satisfactory career of legal study at Oxford. You attended with much care and regularity my classes on Private International Law, of which I became Lecturer on resigning my Professorship of English Law. You paid great attention to the subject which is known also under the title of Conflict of Laws. You obtained recently a Third Class in the B.C.L. Examination. This is not quite as high a position as in my judgment you deserved, but it is worth a great deal. The B.C.L. Examination is by far the most difficult test of legal knowledge provided at any University in England. To pass it with success implies a far greater knowledge of law than is necessary for obtaining admission to the Bar. I must add that the difficulty to an Indian Student of even passing through the B.C.L. Examination is particularly great, for he must acquire a considerable knowledge of Roman Law and of the Latin Language.

I consider therefore you have done very creditably, and trust the knowledge you have acquired may promote your success at the Bar of Madras, where I understand you intend to practise. With all good wishes,

Yours, etc.,
