NOTES.

Budget Debate (5th April 1911).

Female Education

Subject.

Female education. 3

At the budget debate held on the 5th April last the Hon'ble Mr. Raghava Rao Pantulu urged the necessity

(1) for increased expenditure upon female education,

(2) for the establishment of schools exclusively for girls and for the appointment thereof of female teachers only, and

(3) for the establishment of high schools for girls.

The Hon'ble Mr. Subba Rao also suggested increased expenditure on female education and the Hon'ble Mr. Balakrishna Aiyar, the establishment of one college and some high schools for women at selected centres.

2. The Government of India have also taken up this question. They anticipate an increasing demand for female education and have asked that a ten years' programme for the expansion of female education might be drawn up. In Memorandum No. 1635-1, dated 19th July 1911 the D.P.I. has accordingly been requested to draw up a programme and to consider in that connection the question of establishing high schools for girls and the provision of separate schools for the education of girls. The question of re-placing male teachers in girls' schools by female teachers is ^{also} now under the consideration of the D.P.I. - vide Memorandum No. 307-3, dated 1st March 1911.

As regards the establishment of a college for girls, the D.P.I. replied in the Council that it was unnecessary as the number of lady students attending the Presidency College showed that girls could attend a boys' college without any inconvenience.

It does not appear that any separate action is called for on this. The questions raised by the Honble L. Cms on the subject of female education are already engaging the attention of this Govt. and the Govt. of India. The papers may be forwarded to the financial Dept., with reference to their no. no. 3314-1, dated 7th July 1911.
