The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Department of Education,

(Education)

Education Department.

Simla, the 31st July 1911.

Sir,

I am directed to invite attention to the correspondence ending with this Department's letter no. 1072, dated 25th July 1911, regarding the procedure to be followed in prosecuting enquiries in cases of distressed Indian students in the United Kingdom, especially in cases of delayed remittances, etc. It has been suggested that references regarding Indian youths in England who complain about remittances etc., might conveniently be made by the Educational Adviser to Indian students in London to the provincial advisory Committees in India. There appear to be arguments in favour of increasing the responsibility and influence of provincial Committees.

2. I am to enquire whether in the opinion of His Excellency the Governor in Council it is desirable to alter the present procedure in the manner indicated above, whether any difficulties are likely to arise and whether it is desired to make any suggestions on the subject in general.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Joint Secretary to the Government of India.

The Secretary,
Madras Students Advisory Committee.

Memo No 1899-18128-11

It has been suggested that references regarding distressed Indian students in England which are now addressed by the Secretary of State to the Govt of Madras, should in future be made by the Educational Adviser to Indian Students in London direct to the Provincial Advisory Committee in Madras. The Madras Students Advisory Committee is requested to report whether it considers this alteration in the existing procedure, in the manner suggested above, to be desirable and whether it anticipates any difficulties ^{are likely to} ~~will~~ arise if the procedure were so altered.

in consequence of such a change.

No. 1093

I am directed to draw attention to the correspondence and with this Department's letter no. 1093 dated 25th July 1911, regarding the proposal to be followed in prosecuting enquiries in cases of distressed Indian students in the United Kingdom, especially in cases of distress, etc. It has been suggested that references regarding Indian students in England who complain about financial difficulties, etc., might conveniently be made to the Provincial Advisory Committee in Madras. This subject is being discussed in Madras of forwarding the responsibility and influence of Provincial Committees.

I am to enquire whether in the opinion of the Provincial Committee in Madras, it is desirable to direct the Provincial Committee in Madras to make enquiries and report on the subject in Madras.
