THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that under instructions from Government conveyed in their telegram of 23rd April 1910, Mr. C. H. Lobban, late Professor of Civil Engineering, College of Engineering, Madras, was provided with a first class passage by sea to London and the cost thereof viz., £.57-4-0 was paid by this office to Messrs. Best & Co., Agents for the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company. This passage was, however, under a private arrangement exchanged by Mr. C. H. Lobban for a passage by sea up to Marseilles and a Railway ticket coupon for the journey from Marseilles to London, the extra cost thereby involved being paid by Mr. Lobban himself. In consequence, the passage money from Bombay to London was reduced from £.57-4-0 to £.52-16-0, the difference being due to Mr. Lobban having disembarked at Marseilles. The usual rebate was, therefore, allowed by the Steam Navigation Company only on the reduced amount of £.52-16-0. Messrs. Best & Co., the Agents for the Company were addressed on the subject and they have replied stating that as Mr. Lobban actually travelled by sea in one of the Company's boats only up to Marseilles, the Company was not liable for a rebate on the difference in question.

The matter was reported to the Comptroller-General and he has asked me to place the facts before Government adding that no recovery need be made from Mr. Lobban without the express orders of Government.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. H. Ash
Offg. Accountant-General.
