Educational Department.

Sir,

In reply to Memorandum No. 307-3 Edl., dated 1st March last, I have the honour to state that the replacement of male teachers in Girls' Schools by qualified female teachers is a matter of time and can only be done gradually. The statistics furnished by the Inspectresses of Girls' Schools show that there are 3734 teachers in public secondary and elementary girls' schools in the three Circles of whom 2284 are females and 1450 males. Steps have already been taken by the Inspectresses to replace male teachers by females as opportunities occur, but the difficulty of securing the services of qualified female teachers is a great obstacle in the way. As a matter of fact, applications from qualified females can seldom be got even though the vacancies are advertised. Moreover, many of the male teachers are on the permanent staff and until they can can be provided for elsewhere without interruption of their service, they cannot be replaced by females. The reorganization of the Training Schools for Mistresses, now under contemplation, is likely to increase the supply of female teachers and, as such teachers are available, the male teachers now in Girls' Schools will be drafted into boys' schools or into the subordinate inspecting agency to facilitate the employment of female teachers in their stead: the change can thus be made only gradually.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Krishnaswami

for Director of Public Instruction.

the supply of teachers would suffice for at least 30,000 more pupils than are now to be found in schools for girls, will the Government be pleased to state

(a) whether those teachers are all females:

(b) if so, why they were not appointed in the existing vacancies in which males are acting?

No. 26 of 13-2-11

The number of teachers given para 109 of the Pb. Inst. Report for 1909-10. It is reported both male French teachers. The supply of qualified French teachers is generally short of the demand. Male teachers are therefore employed in girls' schools. However such arrangements are not forthcoming.

The Ap. Director being away from Madras, I am returning this file without file with my remarks.

The answer given to question No. 141 at the last Legislative Council meeting was based on paragraph 109 of the Public Instruction Report for 1909-1910. No information is available in this office as to whether the teachers referred to in the report are all females and if they are all females, why they are not appointed in the existing vacancies where males are acting. The file may be forwarded u.o. to the Deputy Director of Public Instruction for very early remarks.

The question and the answer as finally approved were as follows:—

Question 94. In reply to my Question No. 141 at the last meeting of the Legislative Council it was stated that the supply of teachers would suffice for at least 30,000 more pupils than are now to be found in schools for girls, will the Government be pleased to state—

(a) whether those teachers are all females;

(b) if so, why they were not appointed in the existing vacancies in which males are acting?

Answer 94.—

The teachers referred to are not all females. The Government will enquire whether there are any cases where male teachers can be displaced by qualified female teachers.

It won't stop heckling about the reorganization of training schools for mistresses.

Circled in Box No 10.

H.M.

If the H.S.C. wishes for the information on the subject, he will no doubt ask & by that time we may be able to tell him what orders have been passed on the proposals about the training schools for mistresses.

I'd simply record the D.P.'s answer now & communicate to no one.

Yrs. I think we may recall "after" H.M. asks for it we can give it to him
