25 August 1911.

My dear Davidson,

I write this to inform Government that I wish to apply for furlough for about four months in continuation of the summer vacation of the Presidency College for 1912. I have ascertained from the Accountant-General that I am entitled to it under the Civil Service Regulations.

Yours sincerely,

L. Stone

The Hon'ble Mr. Lionel Davidson, I.C.S., Edl. R. Ag. Secretary to Govt., Edl. Dept.

C.No.2163, from the P.S.G., No.376 P., d a t e d 2nd September 1911.

The telegram from the Secretary of State runs as follows:--

"Your telegram dated August 1st. Temporary inspectors selected before change of date notified by you. Melville, for European schools, sails in Peninsular and Oriental steamer on 12th October. Whitworth, Circle Inspector, has given up post in this country and it is proposed to send him on the same date if you can employ him usefully. Otherwise I shall probably have to compensate for loss of salary. Please telegraph whether you concur."

2. Please see the despatch to the Secretary of State No.4, Edl., dated 16th November 1910. In that despatch the Secretary of State was requested to send two officers - one to relieve Mr.Stone in July 1911 and the other to relieve Mr.Littlehales in November 1911. Subsequently Mr.Stone's leave was postponed as Dr.Bourne extended his leave; and in telegram dated 1st August 1911, the Secretary of State was requested to send one of the two officers already asked for, in October next to relieve Mr.Littlehales (who has since been granted leave for 12 months and 12 days from the 23rd October 1911), and the other in January next to relieve Mr.Stone who, it was anticipated, would proceed on leave shortly after his relief by Dr.Bourne.

3. The Hon'ble Mr.Stone has since decided to take only four months' furlough in continuation of the summer vacation of the Presidency College for 1912. But as the Secretary of State has engaged with effect from October next the second temporary officer, he may be appointed to act

Mr. Stone spoke to me about the matter in Madras. I am not clear quite even how how the matter stands. Mr. Stone not in the place of Mr. Brantwaite who has been granted leave for one year and six months with effect from 2nd January 1912 and may be readily employed in the meantime, that is, between the date of his arrival and the 1st January 1912 as acting Inspector of Schools for the district in the place of Mr. Yates or Mr. Mayhew, one of one or other of the two Provincial Service officers - Messrs. Mohamed Asad and H. A. Hart who are now acting in those capacities.

4. The D.P.I. may be consulted as to whether he sees any objection to the arrangement proposed above.

NOTES.

has gone on for morning and afternoon the times of his leave in a most provoking manner. and caused us in the difficulty.
 It seems all right that the 2^o man who comes shall act in Brantwaite's place. But Mr. Stone had better be asked about it. We can refer to Sec of States wire & ask whether the 2^o. Officer can act for Mr. Brantwaite being put on some special duty until Mr. Brantwaite goes.

If Mr. Stone is due in only in a day or two we can wait for him. It is safer not to reply to the S of S. until Mr. Stone has been consulted, a day or two's delay will make no difference.

See a 2^o reference today. Mr. Stone is at the Club.

My dear Stone,

The Secretary of State has telegraphed to say that he has selected two officers for employment as temporary inspectors of schools in this Presidency. One of them Melville, who will presumably take the place of Littlehailes as Inspector of European schools starts on the 12th October. Whitworth, who has been engaged as a Circle Inspector, has given up his post in England and the Secretary of State proposes to send him on the same date, if he can be usefully employed here and points out that otherwise he will have to be compensated for loss of salary. As you have decided to take your leave only in continuation of the summer vacation of the Presidency College in 1912, presumably the best arrangement will be for Whitworth to take the place of Braithwaite when the latter goes on leave in January next, in which case the former might be employed on some special work until Braithwaite is ready to hand over charge. Do you see any objection to this? The matter is urgent for the Secretary of State's telegram requires a cable in reply.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Davidson

I see no objection to the arrangement for replacing bothworth and Melville. One can ^{directly} directly or indirectly as substitute for Crawford achieve Littlehailes. The other, eventually, Baithwaite. I suppose we shall have more detailed information about them before they arrive.
