Simla, the 11 July 1911.

Sir,

In reply to your letter no. 2051, dated the 20th June 1911, I am directed to say :-

- (1) that the term "European schools" includes only those institutions recognized as such under the Code of Regulations for European schools;
 - (2) that the nominal salaries of Jesuits and Nuns may be indicated unless there are objections to obtaining this information. It may also be stated whether these and other teachers are recruited from the United Kingdom or from any other European or American country.
- 2.. With reference to (2) I am to suggest that a footnote to the statement might explain how many of the teachers are in reality honorary workers on nominal salaries.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Sd/- H. Sharp,

Joint Secretary to the Government of India.
