Government of India,
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.
(Education)
Simla, the 13 September 1911.

From

The Hon'ble Mr. H. Sharp, Joint Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Education Department.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge your letter no. 567, dated the 15th August 1911.

2. It would appear from your letter that Mr. Braithwaite proposes to take 10 months' combined leave and subsequently to proceed on deputation for a period of six months. The Government of India are not aware whether 16 months of combined leave is due to Mr. Braithwaite; but the condition on which facilities for such furlough studies are sanctioned is that the periods of special duty shall ordinarily be taken during the officer's furlough, the term of which will be reduced by the period so spent; and such duty shall count as service for pension but not as service for furlough.

3. As regards the subject and the period of study I may say that methods of language teaching appear to be very suitable in the case of inspectors of schools. The questions however arise whether the Berlitz system is in itself suitable for imitation or introduction in the large classes ordinarily found in Indian schools; whether the period suggested is excessive for the study of such a system and whether that study can be prosecuted most conveniently in England or in some foreign country. The Government of India prefer to postpone consideration of these points until the matter treated of in the second paragraph

NOTES.

C. No. 2255 From the Govt of India. No 1271 dated 6-9-1911.

SUBJECT.

Furlough study of Mr. Braithwaite Inspector of Schools.

B

The statement made in para. 2 of the letter to India no. 567 Edl dated 15th August 1911 that Mr. Braithwaite proposed to take privilege leave and furlough for ten months and that in continuation of this leave he desired to be deputed for special study for a period of six months was based on the D.P.'s letter Ruo. 4154 dated 18th July 1911 on page 1 of G.O. no. 523 Edl dated 1st August 1911.

2. But Mr. Braithwaite has since been granted leave for one year and six months - vide G.O. Ruo. 279 Edl dated 5th Sept. 1911 - and his special study can thus be taken within the period of his leave, which will be reduced by the months spent on special study. The Govt of India may be informed accordingly.
