Copy of letter R.C.No.2030/Genl. dated 8th August 1911 from R.H. Hitchcock, Esquire, Acting District Superintendent of Police, Salem, to the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, through the Deputy Inspector-General, Central Range.

I have the honour to attach herewith an extract from the Deputy Inspector-General of Police's Inspection Notes on this district as regards Acting Inspector Manickam Pillai.

On this the Inspector-General of Police ordered I should bring the Inspector's claims for promotion to notice.

There is one bar to his promotion, the fact that he has passed no examination and is not eligible to appear for the Criminal Lower Test.

He was enlisted as 2nd class constable on 9-1-1890. He first acted as Inspector in 1904 and has acted continuously since 18-10-1907.

His knowledge of English and of Law is good; far better than that of many passed men.

His grave crime is always well dealt with and his supervision over the investigation of his subordinates in lesser crimes - no small matter in these days of inexperienced Sub-Inspectors - is close without being harassing. He maintains excellent discipline and is well known and liked even in the smaller villages of his Division.

In Omalur Division, he did constant good work keeping a good check over the local criminals and bringing to book those who came from outside; and also he reduced the number of false cases considerably by honestly working sections 182 and 211. His work in those cases alone showed that his absence of examination qualifications is no practical bar to his promotion.

For these reasons I transferred him to Trichengode, the heaviest Division in the district. I have just inspected this Division closely. It is in a vastly improved condition.

Grave

Grave crimes by the local Koravers in this Division and in Coimbatore district have been reduced and cattle thefts have been thoroughly investigated with very fair results. I have visited many villages and his good work is as apparent in them as it is in the records in stations.

Many warrants have been executed by him in person and by subordinates working directly under his orders and on his information. Only last week a murderer who escaped from the Central Jail, Salem, was arrested on his information, by one of his own men in Samballi station, Coimbatore district.

For these reasons, I have the honour to recommend most strongly his promotion as Circle Inspector. There are vacancies in this District.

(Sd). R.H. Hitchcock.

Ag. Dist. Supt. of Police.

Endorsement of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Central Range, on the above.

Forwarded. He thoroughly deserves promotion.

10. Tiruchengode Division.

The present Inspector's investigation has been thorough and he is showing himself active in the watching of bad characters. I am very pleased with his work here and during my tour also noticed the work done by him in Omalur Division which was excellent. I recommend his promotion to 4th class Inspector. He has been in charge of Division for some time now, has done uniformly well and will be required for circle charge on reallocation.

The Superintendent can bring the Inspector's claims for promotion to notice if he had passed the necessary tests.

LEGISLATIVE

NOTES.

C. No. 2234 From the 2^d of Police No. 613, dated 7. 9. 1901.

SUBJECT. Exemption of Sub. Inspector Manikkam Pillai from the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade for employment as an Inspector of Police.

The application of the 2^d of Police for the exemption of Sub. Inspector Manikkam Pillai from the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, may be forwarded to the Judicial Deptt. W.O. for remarks. The attention of that department may be solicited to the Hon'ble Sir M. Hammick's note on page 5 of G.O. 605 Dtd 13th November 1909 and the Hon'ble Mr. Atkinson's note on pages 4 and 5 of G.O. 492 Dtd 17th August 1910. For precedents please see G.O. 107 Dtd 23rd February 1909 and 647 Dtd 14th December 1909. The first of these cases is more or less similar to the present case, except that the candidate "9" is a non-Brahmin. In Col. 10 of the application the 2^d states that the recommendation is made in the interests of the administration, but beyond this statement there is nothing to show that the administration will suffer if the exemption were refused or that qualified candidates are not available -

Inst. Dept.

D.P.

Attention is invited to the D.P.'s letter on pp 3-4 C.7. The Sub Inspector has passed no examination and is not eligible to appear for the Criminal ~~Lower~~ ^{Grade} Judicial Test, ~~Lower~~ ^{Grade}, which is the qualifying test for an Inspector's place. It is for orders whether the D.P.'s recommendation will be supported in Judicial or whether a reference will be made to the D.P. ~~and the reason~~ calling for further information as indicated in the last portion of Educational Dept. note on p 1 ante. It will be noticed, however, that the unpassed Sub Insp. was successfully acting as Insp. since 1907, and that as a promoted head constable he was ^{apparently} exempt from passing the Matriculation and the Vellore School examination. The present application is for a yet further exemption.

I submit that this applicⁿ ~~is~~ ^{is} strongly supported in Inst.

It is not made by the Sub Inspector himself but by his official superiors - in order to secure him the promotion his good work deserves. He is a na. Brahmin in ~~inst.~~

Decline to exempt: A man who enters as a 2nd grade Com. late a he. paid no examination cannot possibly make an efficient Inspector. His promotion permanently will disaffail & disrupt numerous fast but inept Inspectors, who entered the force thinking naturally that ideals men will be prepared to understand.

There are heaps of men just like this man - with this & plenty of facts & exp. to recommend & if we grant in this case we shall have no ground for refusal in many other cases.
