From

To

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 1956-1,

Wynck's letter No. 451 Edl., dated 30th July 1910 on the Subject of establishment of a Rajkumar College in Madras before the end of the current official year. The Association is in Correspondence with some of the prominent Zemindars of the Presidency on the Subject and it is not likely that any definite result will be arrived at before April next.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Subject.

Rajkumar College.

At the budget debate held on the 5th April last, the Hon'ble Rao Bahadur Ramabhadra Nayudu suggested that the Government should explain the object of the proposed Rajkumar college to the zamindars through the District Collectors and make them contribute to the endowment fund required for the establishment of the college. He also observed ~~that~~ ^{that} "that the Collectors have to do is to explain its objects and approach as many zamindars as they can. Written notices and appeals will be less effectual than personal appeals made to zamindars".

2. When the scheme for the establishment of a Rajkumar college was under the consideration of Government it was first proposed that the Government should address each zamindar by letter and ask whether he could contribute towards the buildings and ^{the cost of} endowment fund of the ^{proposed} college. But as it was considered that such a procedure on the part of Government would be interpreted as official pressure, the proposal was abandoned and the Landholders' Association was requested to ascertain and report to Government what amount of support might be expected from the zamindars - vide Sir William Meyer's note dated 15th February 1910 and the Hon'ble Member's notes thereon on pages 9 to 11 of the notes to G.O.No.416, Bdl., dated 15th July 1910.

Vide Sir William Meyer's
note imp. 9 of do - D.

The proposal that Collectors should apply personally to the zamindars would be open to much the same objection as that which was urged against the Government's issuing the appeal. The Hon'ble Legislative Council Member's suggestion cannot therefore be accepted.

2. No reply has yet been received from the Landholders Association to this Department letter No. 451 dated 30th July 1910. It is submitted that a reminder may now be sent to the Association asking when a reply may be expected.
