Instruction, and the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle wants to have a separate nightwatchman for her office for the reason that it is situated in a corner of the 'Old College Compound, the northern side of which is entirely unprotected and that it is not possible for the nightpeon attached to the office of the Director of Public Instruction to look after her office owing to the distance between the two. I consider the employment of a second nightpeon to be necessary not only for the office of the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, but also for all the other offices situated on the northern side of the compound, as the arguments adduced by the Inspectress apply with equal force to the other offices, and accordingly beg to suggest that a common nightwatchman on a salary of Rs. 7/- per mensem be employed and that his salary be met by contribution from the contingencies of the offices concerned as indicated below :
