ON. [Please add to this file the G.O.s relating

H. M. Please see G.O. 627 ⁸⁸ of 28. 04
I saw Messrs. Golisp and Hooper this morning & finding they demurred to the Rs 10,000 limit & wanted the full third grant, viz! Rs 13,845, I explained the circumstances in which the release laid down & said I could not be released except by your authority, which, so far as I was aware, had only once been so used. The special ground for relaxation in this case is that the Home Board of the Mission sanctioned in the scheme in the hope for a third grant & that without it progress might be stopped until such time as the Mission can raise another £3,873. Mr. Cooling will probably ask for an interview & this file is submitted against that contingency.

Thanks unless Mr. Cooling has something very special to say I do not think there is reason to increase the grant. Mr. Norring must have some limit. Return to papers.
