Mr. Bursar advises that these certificates may be accepted but adds that there should be in addition some evidence of practical administrative experience in the subject in connection with which the certificates were gained. I agree

The following telegraphic reply may be sent to the India Office:-

"Your telegram dated 10th November (1911). Wesleyan Industrial School, Karur. ^{Letter} ~~xxx~~ of (the) certificates referred to will suffice but headmaster should have in addition practical administrative experience in (the) subjects mentioned in (the) certificate."

2. It has to be decided to whom the reply telegram should be addressed. Every telegram from the Secretary of State received in this department begins with the code word "Resurgidas" indicating that it is from the Secretary of State for India to the Governor of Madras, Educational, Legislative, Local and Municipal Departments. This code word is not found in the telegram under reference; ~~xxx~~ apparently therefore it is not from the Secretary of State. It must be from some officer of the India Office but who that officer is, is not stated. May the reply be addressed to the Secretary of State?
