Simla, the 9th October 1911.

Sir,

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the marginally noted letter x No. 1370-P.W., dated 21st July 1911. § from the India Office, and to state that, in accordance with the suggestion contained in paragraph 3 thereof, the Government of India are issuing instructions to the Superintendent, Government Printing, India, for the supply to Secretaries of the Provincial Advisory Committees, through local Governments and Administrations, of a copy of the current edition of the Indian Word Code for Foreign State telegrams.

2. I am to add that the scope of direct communications between the Educational Adviser to Indian students in London and the Provincial Advisory Committees will be governed by the decision which may be arrived at as a result of the replies received from local Governments and Administrations to this Department letter no. 1093, dated the 31st July 1911.

21st July 1911.

Dear Sir,

I have to inform you that the following telegraphic address has been registered in London, with effect from the 19th instant, namely, "Xafariz, LONDON", meaning, "Educational Adviser to ^{Indian Students} ~~the Secretary of State for India~~, 21 Cromwell Road, South Kensington, "S.W.", and that the new address will, in due course, be included in a Supplement to the fifth edition of the Indian Word Code for Foreign State telegrams.

2. I have further to inform you that a copy of the current edition of the Indian Word Code has been furnished to the Educational Adviser, who has represented that he frequently receives communications by telegraph on matters affecting Indian students in this country from the Secretaries of the Provincial Advisory Committees in India.

3. In these circumstances, the Government of India may, perhaps, consider the desirability of making copies of the Word Code available for the use of any Secretaries of Provincial Advisory Committees that may not at present be in possession of them.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- W. Stantiall,

Asst. Secretary,
