Vacation in Government Colleges.

Fixing the dates of closing and re-opening of the Government colleges for the Christmas vacation of 1911 and the summer vacation of 1912.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from the Hon'ble A. G. BOURNE, Esq., D.Sc., F.R.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 17th November 1911.
No.—Ref. on Cur. 5803.

With reference to G.O. No. 615, Educational, dated 19th September 1906, I have the honour to submit, for the sanction of Government, a statement showing the dates proposed for the closing and re-opening of the various Government Arts and Professional colleges in this Presidency for the ensuing Christmas vacation and for the summer vacation of 1912.

2. It is proposed to re-open the Arts colleges after the summer vacation of 1912 earlier than in the current year on account of a recent report of the Syndicate of the University to the effect that, beginning with the academic year 1912-1913, the year for candidates for the Intermediate and B.A. degree examinations ends on the day on which their term certificates are made out, which must not be later than 9th March for the former and 20th March for the latter. In order to provide the required number of working days for the year 1912-1913, it is necessary that the long term should begin sufficiently earlier than it did this year.

3. Mr. Nelson proposes to close the Law College from 1st April to 14th July 1912 for the summer vacation, i.e., for three months and a half. But as this period is unusually long, I have curtailed it by about ten days.

4. The Principal of the College of Engineering states that the summer vacation of the college should be the same as that sanctioned in the case of the Presidency and other Government colleges. But as this proposal is in conflict with rule 6 (c) of the rules relating to the constitution and working of the College of Engineering, I recommend that the college be closed from the 1st May to the 14th July 1912 for the summer vacation.

NOTE.—The figures in italics show the dates for 1910-11.

2. In all cases except that of the Law College the periods of vacation proposed more or less agree. In the case of the Law College, it is proposed to allow 17 days for the Christmas vacation against 9 days in 1910 and 96 days for the summer vacation against 94 days in the current year. The Director of Public Instruction notes that Mr. Nelson proposed to close the college for the summer vacation from 1st April to 14th July 1912 or for three months and a half but that he (the Director) has reduced the period by about 10 days. The Law College need not be closed for the summer vacation for a longer period in 1912 than in 1911. The Director proposes that the Law College should reopen after the summer vacation on Wednesday the 10th July 1912, but it may reopen on Monday the 8th July, and if it does, the period of vacation will be reduced to 94 days as in the current year.

3. A draft is submitted for approval. If the suggestion made in the preceding paragraph to reduce the period of summer vacation of the Law College by 2 days is accepted, the date given in the draft will have to be altered.

T.K.—27-11-11.

R. SUNDARAM Aiyar—27-11-11.

Not worth while.

2. What is more important is the addition of 8 days to the Christmas vacation of the Law College, but as the Director of Public Instruction and the Principal agree, Government need not demur, I think.

L. DAVIDSON—29-11-11.

We must always watch the Law College. Mr. Nelson is a regular holiday-hunter, knock off the two days, make college open on the 8th.

M. H[AMMICK]—30-11-11.

Issue as amended.

L. DAVIDSON—1-12-11.
