To

His Excellency the Right Honourable
Sir Arthur Lawley K.C.M.G.C.I.E.,
the Governor in Council,

The humble memorial of Muhamed Niaz Hussain Sahib, a grandson of His Late Highness the Second Prince of Arcot C.C.S.I.

Forwarded through

The Honourable Mr. N. S. Brodie I.C.S., Commissioner of Land Revenue and Inam Commissioner,
Board's Office, Madras.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

1. That the memorialist is a maternal grandson of H.H. Nawab Sir Zahiruddoula Bahadur C.C.S.I. the late Second Prince of Arcot, and paternally of the late Nawab Ameeruddoula Bahadur, who was in receipt of a political grant of Rs. 300/- per mensem from the benign Government. His parents are Carnatic Stipendaries drawing a monthly allowance of Rs. 85/- (Vide the certificate given by Col. Lowry I.A., Ag. Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends in Appendix A)

2. That the memorialist, therefore bears a close connection with the Arcot and Carnatic families that observe unflinching loyalty and devotion to the -- British Raj and further is closely related to the present Prince of Arcot the Honourable Sir Chulam Mohamed Ali Khan Bahadur as a cousin brother.

That

4/ 5

3. That the memorialist was given sound education by his parents up to the Matriculation standard ~~and~~ in the Harris High School, Royapettah and the Government Madrasai Azum of which he claims to be a promising intelligent and well behaved student, besides being a good scholar of English (Vide appendix A and B for the certificates of the School authorities) But the circumstances that led to the discontinuation of his studies necessitated his presence in Baghdad, where he spent a few years and hence his studies for higher education were cut off.

4. That the memorialist is well versed in Turkish Arabic, Persian, Hindustani and Tamil, which many --- learned men have made an acknowledgment of and granted certificates for; and in view of his capability and efficiency in the Oriental lore and a thorough knowledge of English which will enable him to cope with any office work he may be entrusted with, the memorialist begs to offer himself as a candidate for the post of a probationary Revenue Inspector and prays for exemption from the operation of the Examination rules; so that he may amend his fortunes and be a helping hand to his family and other two brothers in respect of their education and prosperity.

5. That the memorialist in conclusion ventures to elucidate the fact that young members of the --- Carnatic family of proved conduct and capacity were favoured with exemption from the operation of the Examination rules by the benign Government which has always an eye upon the intelligent generation of the Nawabs of the Carnatic, highly esteemed and honoured for the meritorious services they rendered to the --- Government, and also upon the moral elevation of the illustrious Carnatic Family. So then the memorialist as a grandson of the late Second Prince of Arcot H.H.Sir Zahiruddoula Bahadur C.C.S.I., not to speak of his nearest relation with the present Prince of Arcot solicits the benevolence of your Excellency's Council and prays for such exemption that will allow him to study for the Special Test Examinations of the Revenue Department which he wishes to enter as a --- Revenue Inspector. The memorialist is twenty two years old.

For which act of grace the memorialist shall ever pray.

I beg to remain,
Your Excellency's most humble and
loyal servant,

NOTES.

Stonehouse Hill,
29th August 1911.

My dear Atkinson,

I will have the information regarding Co-operative Credit Societies in Salem etc. collected and sent to you as requested in your letter of the 27th instant.

I return the letter from Muhammad Niaz Hussain. Nothing is known of him in the office; but I send for perusal Board's Reference, dated the 24th August 1911, in which recommendation for his exemption from examination rules is submitted.

Although the signatures of the two letters are different, it seems clear that both relate to the same man which explains his "simple" desire "to pay his respects to you in person". You will see that he wants to be a Revenue Inspector.

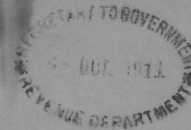

Yours sincerely,

A. G. Cardew

The Board recommends that Mahamad Naiz Hussain Sahib (Age 22) who is a member of the Carnatic family may be exempted from the restriction contained in para 3 of G.O. No. 682 Rev., d/11-3-1911 viz., that recruitment to the Upper Division shall be confined to graduates. The applicant has studied up to the Matriculation Standard and is stated by Mr. Leith to be intelligent and capable and to have a good command of English for his age. The Board states that there is every probability of his making a good Govt. servant although he has not passed any examination.

2. The applicant is not only not a graduate but he is not qualified for appointment to any post in the superior service carrying pay exceeding Rs. 20 p.m. having passed none of the examinations prescribed in para 1 of the Public Service Notification. He wishes to enter as a Revenue Inspector and prays for such exemption as will allow him to study for the Special Test Examinations of the Revenue Department.

3. For the higher posts (Dy. Collectors) in the Revenue Dept. the following Special Tests are necessary. The general Educational qualifications required for these Special Tests are shown against each.

Précis ..	Graduates

be transferred to the Educational with the remarks of the Revenue Department.

4. As regards exemption from the restriction contained in para 3 of G.O.No.682 Rev., d/11-3-1911 it is submitted that orders will have to issue in this Department. In submitting its remarks on the scheme for the separation of the service into Upper & Lower the Board stated that the direct recruits should ordinarily but not necessarily be graduates.

para 14 of B.O. 2484 of 4-7-1910 at p 7 of G.O. 682 Rev. 11-3-1911

P The Government however considered that direct recruitment to the Upper Service should be restricted to graduates; please see page 26 of the notes to G.O.No.682 Rev., d/11-3-1911.

For orders whether, as a special case, the Govt. may relax this restriction in favour of the applicant. Orders on this point can issue in this Dept. on receipt of the Educational Order.

him This man turned up at Ooty a few days ago. He speaks English very well & impressed me rather favourably. His reason for having passed no exam is that he has resided a good deal abroad, at Bagdad, & so has been out of the way of the usual course. He is evidently a real member of the Carnatic family & it might be worth while to give him a chance.

24.10.11

First find out for certain what his relationship to the Carnatic family is. I have found so many disant members thereof very inaccurate in their statements.

Hm.

Please see Col. Lowry's certificate dated 9th Oct. or on p. 6 C.F. I think that may safely be followed. There is also an earlier certificate ^{on same page} to the same effect by the Headmaster of the Harris School.

Alf 26.10.11

I am sorry to be a sceptic. Col. Lowry was the prey of his own good nature, & give a certificate of this kind without any enquiry as to its correctness. The ~~other~~ Headmaster ~~was~~ is probably no more careful in such matters. Ask the Gov^t of Madras as to Mr. Niaz's exact relationship to the family.

A draft order is submitted for approval.

2. Revenue Inspectors (including Audit Records Inspectors) are required to pass only the Revenue and Account tests, lower grade. Persons qualified under art. 1 of the Public Service Notification are eligible to appear for them. The exemption granted to M. N. Hussain Sahib carries with it the privilege of appearing for these tests without the special permission of Govt. Cf. para. 2 of G.O. 38 E.O. of 24th January 1910 and also clause (III) of note (3) to art. 4 of the special tests notification.

Makes two requests - (1), to be exempted from examination rules in view to his appointment as Revenue Inspector & 2, to be given such exemption that will allow him to study for the special Test examinations of the Rev. Dept., meaning apparently the following tests which are prescribed for the post of Dy Collector - please see page 3 of these notes ante.

1. Precis.
2. Rev. Test Higher
3. Criminal Test Higher
4. Account Test Higher

The Hon. W Atkinson's orders are
" I am prepared to exempt him
" from examⁿ & other restrictions
" so as to enable him to be " appointed as Rev. Inspector "

The H. M.'s orders apparently refer to the post of Rev. Insp^r only and it does not seem to have been contemplated that the petitioner should be allowed to appear for the tests for qualifying for the post of Dy Collector.

The draft order is based on this view & is for approval.

Re 30.11.11 I am not clear that the sentence of the draft is correct & that like to point out to the Secy.
