2. The Divisional Officer of Sattur, in consideration of the applicant's caste and of his capabilities, strongly recommends that he may be exempted from the examination rules for the purpose of promotion to appointments carrying more than Rs.20/- and that he may be permitted to appear for the special tests required for the post of a Revenue Inspector, viz., Revenue and Account Tests Lower Grade. The Maravar caste is in many respects the most important in the District and it is desirable to encourage merit in it. I support the recommendation of the Divisional Officer and request that you will be pleased to grant the exemption applied for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Acting Collector.

Through

The Sub Collector, Sattur.

The humble application of Periaswami - Thever, Local Fund Clerk, Srivilliputtur Taluk and acting 5th clerk, Divisional Office, Sattur.

Most respectfully sheweth:-

That the applicant is of Marava caste and has studied up to the Matriculation standard of the Madras University and has passed the late Lower Secondary Examination of the Madras Government.

2. That the applicant entered in Government service as a Masalji in 1904 and has by his industry and trustworthiness risen to his present position as a clerk in the Divisional Office on Rs 20

3. That none of the officers under whom he served during the last 7 or 8 years in various capacities had any occasion to find fault with him in any way and this is in itself a testimony for his conduct and ability to discharge the work entrusted to him.

4. That unfortunately before entering the Government service, he could not, owing to his pecuniary difficulties prosecute his studies further so as to qualify himself for higher posts, and in the pressing of circumstances to eke out for himself a livelihood he had to enter the service.

5. That the examination rules do not allow the applicant an unpassed man to apply for examinations (Special Tests) so as to qualify himself for at least for a Revenue Inspector's place and the applicant being of a caste which has a few or none of its representatives in the Government in the Superior service, he humbly requests your honour to be graciously pleased to recommend his exemption from Examination rules for applying for the Special Tests of Account and Revenue Tests

SUBJECT. Requesting the permanent exemption of A. Periasami Tevar, clerk (pay Rs 20), Divisional office, Sattur, from the provisions of art. 1 of the Public Service Notification.

The Collector of Ramnad (Mr. Bryant) recommends the permanent exemption of A. Periasami Tevar, ag clerk on Rs 20 p.m. in the Divisional office, Sattur, from the provisions of art. 1 of the Public Service Notification and requests that he may be permitted to appear for the Revenue and Account tests, lower grade, so as to avail of his promotion to appointments carrying more than Rs 20 p.m., specially to the post of a Rev. 2. The general rule is that applications for exemption should be supported only on public grounds - vide the Hon'ble Mr. Atkinson's note on pages 4 and 5 of G.O. 492 Bd of 17th August 1910. vide list of backward classes under art. 15 of the Grant-in-aid Code

Cf. p. 2 of C.F.

It is for consideration whether the exemption may be sanctioned on the above grounds and if so, whether it may be restricted to the post of a Revenue Inspector. If the exemption is sanctioned he will be eligible to appear for all the special tests for which candidates who are qualified under art. 1 of the Public Service Notification are eligible, without the special permission of

To Under Secretary

The D.L. Officer, Sattur, states that the applicant comes from a caste (Maravar) which has few representations in Superior Govt. Service and recommends that he may be exempted from the examination rules for the purpose of promotion to appointments carrying more than Rs 20 p.m. The Colt (Mr. Bryant) supports the recommendation on the ground that the Maravar caste is in many respects the most important in the Ruamed district, and that it is desirable to encourage merit in it. Attention is solicited to Secretary's note at p 2 of the notes to G.O. No 649 Edl of 15.11.1910. The applicant is spoken of by the D.O. Officer, Sater, to be a "capable clerk" Submitted that, in the circumstances, the Collector's recommendation may be supported in this opt.

2 In applying for exemption the applicant desires to qualify himself for the Rev Inspector's place. According to G.O. No 682 Rev of 11.3.1911 Rev Inspr's place belongs to the upper division. It is for consideration whether the exemption, if granted, may not be restricted.

Perhaps hardly necessary. He must pass his special tests, he may get the promotion.

to the post of Revenue Inspector. If the applicant should turn out a capable officer the question of exempting him generally for posts in the superior service may be considered.
