C
In G.O. No. 568 Mis. Educational, dated 28th September 1910 Government were pleased to sanction the temporary employment of S. Subbarayulu Chetti, Museum Keeper, School of Arts, under the Victoria Technical Institute; and he was accordingly granted extraordinary leave without allowances for the period of his employment under the Institute. As the leave was granted to him not at his own request but on account of circumstances beyond his control, viz., the exigencies of the Victoria Technical Institute, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to grant exemption on his behalf under Article 160 B (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, so that the period of his leave without allowances, i.e., 15th

3/ 3
15th October 1910 to 14th March 1911, may count towards increment in his appointment, the pay of which is Rs. 20-1-25.

Your message of the 2nd inst. re-
S. Subbaraya Chetti.

S. Subbaraya Chetti was appointed permanently to the post of Museum Keeper & Librarian in the School of Arts
on Rs 20-1-25 with effect from 1st Sept 1909. He is now drawing Rs 21 only.

He is also eligible for the increment of Rs 22 for 1st Sept 1911, if the period of his service under the Victoria Technical Institute be held to count towards the increment.

C. No. 2894 From the S.P. 9. No 668/11, dated 23-10-1911.

SUBJECT. Recommending that S. Subbarayulu Chetti, Museum Keeper, School of Arts (Salary Rs 20-1-25) maybe permitted to count the period of his service under the Victoria Technical Institute towards increments in his appointment.

Please see the Accountant-General's endorsement on page 4 of G.O. 668 Est. of 28-9-10 which was communicated to the S.P. 9 with that G.O. The transfer of the service of Subbarayulu Chetti to the Victoria Technical Institute could not be made under "foreign service" rules without the special sanction of the Govt. of India. He was therefore granted leave without allowances by the S.P. 9 for five months from 15th October 1910 to 14th March 1911 and was during that period employed under the Victoria Technical Institute.

p. 3 of C.F.

2. The S.P. 9 now requests that Subbarayulu Chetti may be exempted from the operation of art. 160 B (b) of the C.S.R. The A.G. points out that that art. is not applicable to Subbarayulu Chetti. It does not appear that the S.P. 9's request is admissible under the rules. ~~It is not admissible under the rules.~~

3. A draft order is submitted for approval. It may issue with the concurrence of the Financial Deptt.

Re Setting aside for the moment the question of the precise effect of the C.S.R., the case presents no doubt hardship. I understood the clerk was transferred to special employment in the public interests, - not at his own desire & according to the rules as interpreted he stands to lose the present & all future increments postponed for five months. This means an annual penalty of Rs. 50 - what is the total sum he will lose? and did he receive any compensating benefit while employed at the Institute which can be set against his loss? If not, is there any way connected with the Govt. & C.A. Govt. which he can - get the sanction of the Govt. of India - be reimbursed his loss or protected from suffering it?

J
For

It is true that Subayulu Chetti was sent to Allahabad in the interests of the Victoria Technical Institute but it was open to him to have declined the offer as the Institute ~~was~~ is only a private body. He was appointed to the post of Museum Keeper of the Schools of Arts with effect from the 1st September 1909. He drew his first increment Rs. 21, in the grade of Rs. 20-1-25, from the K.

1st September 1910 and, but for the leave granted to him, should have drawn the next stage of pay (Rs 22) from 1st September 1911. The leave without pay taken by him has the effect of postponing his increments ~~for~~ five months and the total loss on this account will be Rs 20, at the rate of Rs 5 a year for the next ~~of~~ four years.

While employed at the Institute, he was allowed a pay of Rs 35 per mensem, as against his Rs 21 in the School of Arts, and in addition a batta of Rs 1-8-0 per diem during his absence from Madras. Even leaving out of account the daily batta which was intended to cover his actual Expenses, he received as pay Rs 14 a month in addition, or Rs 70 for the five months and this benefit can be set against the loss of his increments.

Re a substantial balance to 5.12.11 Rs 600. The draft may issue mis.

The S.P.I will be informed that article 160. B. (b) of the C.S.R refers only to officers on a time scale of pay and is not applicable to S. Subbarayalu Chetti who holds an appointment on progressive pay. The period of leave without allowances granted to Subbarayalu Chetti cannot therefore count towards increment in his appointment.
