ENCLOSURES.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS.

Report of the Syndicate upon the application from the Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, for further affiliation in group (VI) (two languages—Telugu and Sanskrit) of the courses for the B.A. degree examination.

The Syndicate reports the following correspondence relative to this application.

Letter—from the Manager, Vizianagram Samasthanam, Vizianagram.
To—the Registrar, University of Madras.
Dated—the 23rd March 1911.
No.—634.

I have the honour to submit my application for affiliation of the Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, in group (vi) (two languages—Sanskrit and Telugu) for the ordinary B.A. degree examination and request you to kindly place the matter before the Syndicate. As this college is affiliated in groups (i), (ii-B) and (iv) for the ordinary B.A. degree examination, it will be necessary to furnish information to the Syndicate on sub-clauses (b), (c), (d) of regulation 376 (University Calendar for 1911).

(b) The teaching staff consists of two pandits who have been teaching Sanskrit and Telugu in the college for some years. They will teach these languages to the new classes when they are opened. As for their qualifications, they are good scholars in their respective languages and are acquainted with Western methods of criticism, as they know English well, having passed the Matriculation examination of the Madras University.

(c) There is ample accommodation in the college building for the classes to be opened as two of the lecture rooms are placed at the disposal of the pandits.

(d) The college library contains a large number of Sanskrit and Telugu books as well as English books dealing with oriental subjects.

I may add that, if any defects are pointed out after the local inspection, I shall speedily attend to them.

Letter—from the Principal, Maharajah's College, Vizianagram.
To—the Registrar, University of Madras.
Dated—the 23rd March 1911.
No.—635.

I have the honour to forward the application of the Manager of the Vizianagram Samasthanam requesting the affiliation of the Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, in group (vi) (two languages—Sanskrit and Telugu) for the ordinary B.A. degree examination and request you will kindly place the application before the Syndicate.

As the college will be closed for the summer vacation from the 10th of April up to the 2nd of July both days inclusive, I shall thank you if you let me know when the gentleman appointed by the Syndicate to conduct the usual local inquiry will be able to go here, so that if he proposes to visit the college in the vacation, I may arrange for the presence of the pandits at the time of the inquiry.

Letter—from the Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Chairmen, Boards of Studies in Sanskrit and Dravidian Languages.
Dated—the 12th April 1911.
No.—1139.

An application has been received from an affiliated college for further affiliation in group (vi) (two languages) of the B.A. degree courses. I am directed to refer to your Boards for joint consideration and report the question whether a knowledge of modern European methods of criticism and research are essential parts of the equipment of teachers in group (vi) of the B.A. degree courses.

The Syndicate is desirous of obtaining the opinion of the joint Boards on this question before appointing a person to conduct the local inquiry under section 21 (2) (a) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904.

Proceedings of a joint meeting of the Boards of Studies in Dravidian Languages and Sanskrit, Mahratti and Uriya, held on 19th August 1911.

Resolved that the Boards are of opinion that a knowledge of European methods of criticism and research is an essential element of the teaching required in group (vi) of the B.A. courses and that this desideratum may be supplied by associating, where necessary, suitable graduates with pandits in the conduct of the teaching work above referred to.

P. S. SIVASWAMI AYYAR,
Chairman, Board of Studies in Sanskrit, Mahratti and Uriya.

Letter—from the Registrar of the University of Madras.
To—M.R.Ry. G. VENKATARAMA RAO GARU, M.A., and M.R.Ry. R. KRISHNAMACHARIYAR AVARGAL, M.A.
Dated—the 18th September 1911.
No.—2878.

I have the honour to inform you that the Syndicate has appointed you to conduct a local inquiry under section 21 (2) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, at the Vizianagram College, with reference to an application for the affiliation of the college in group (vi) (two languages—Telugu and Sanskrit) of the B.A. degree course (Pass, not Honours).

The scope of the inquiry to be made by you is limited to the provision made for the teaching of 1. Telugu and does not include the other groups of the Arts courses in respect to which the college is now affiliated except so far as such affiliation may affect the ability of the college to make due provision for 2. Sanskrit.

1. M.R.Ry. R. Krishnamachariyar, M.A. is being requested at the same time to conduct a local inquiry with respect to the provision for 2. Sanskrit.
2. M.R.Ry. G. Venkataranga Rao, M.A. - Sanskrit
3. Telugu.

A copy of the letters of application from the college is enclosed herewith. With reference to the same I am instructed to inform you that the Syndicate referred to the Boards of Studies in Sanskrit and in the Dravidian Languages for joint consideration the question as to whether a knowledge of modern European methods of criticism and research are essential parts of the equipment of teachers in group (vi) of the B.A. degree courses. The joint Boards resolved that the Boards are of opinion that a knowledge of European methods of criticism and research is an essential element of the teaching required in group (vi) of the B.A. courses, and that this desideratum may be supplied by associating, where necessary, suitable graduates with pandits in the conduct of the teaching work above referred to.

The Syndicate desires me to add that, if possible, your report on the inquiry should be submitted in time for circulation before the next meeting of the Syndicate on the 3rd proximo. It should, therefore, be in my hands by 28th instant at the latest.

I suggest that it will be convenient if 1. Mr. R. Krishnamachariyar and you 2. Mr. G. Venkataranga Rao and you were to arrange for a joint inquiry at the college. I should be glad to know as soon as possible whether you are able to undertake this work.

Telegram—from the Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Principal, Maharaja's College, Vizianagram.
Dated—the 20th September 1911.

Syndicate has appointed Messrs. G. Venkataranga Rao and R. Krishnamachariyar to conduct local inquiry in connection with your application for affiliation in group (vi) B.A. degree course. Inspectors start for Vizianagram twenty-third. Will conduct local enquiry Monday twenty-fifth. Please afford them all necessary facilities.

Letter—from Mr. R. KRISHNAMACHARIYAR.
To—the Registrar of the University of Madras.
Dated—the 26th September 1911.

With reference to your No. 2878, dated 18th September 1911, authorizing me to conduct a local inquiry under section 21 (2) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, at the Vizianagram College, in connection with an application for the affiliation of the college in group (vi) (two languages—Telugu and Sanskrit) of the B.A. degree pass course, I have the honour to report that a detailed inquiry was conducted by me jointly with Mr. G. Venkataranga Rao Garu, M.A., on Monday the 25th instant in regard to accommodation, staff and library.

A well ventilated room in the upstairs hall is set apart for the Sanskrit class, and it can conveniently accommodate thirty-five students.

Pandit Ramanachariyar is a good Sanskrit scholar and has passed the Matriculation examination. Under the guidance of Mr. K. Ramanujachariyar, the Principal, who is himself a good Sanskrit scholar, he has been making a close study of the works bearing on modern European methods of criticism and research. I examined a few of his notes both in English and in Sanskrit bearing ample evidence of his acquaintance with the history of Sanskrit literature and language and with the outlines of comparative philology. He is quite competent to impart instruction in Sanskrit for the B.A. pass course.

The library also is well equipped and it contains most of the important publications (both European and Indian) bearing on Sanskrit literature and language.

In these circumstances I am of opinion that the institution is qualified to provide instruction in group (vi) (two languages—Telugu and Sanskrit) for the B.A. degree pass course.

Letter—from Mr. G. VENKATARAMA RAO.
To—the Registrar of the University of Madras.
Dated—the 26th September 1911.

With reference to your letter No. 2878, dated 18th September 1911, asking me to conduct a local inquiry in connection with the application for the affiliation of the Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, in group (vi) (two languages—Telugu and Sanskrit) of the B.A. degree pass course, I have the honour to report as follows in regard to the provision made therein for the teaching of Telugu.

I visited the college on Monday the 25th September 1911 in conjunction with Mr. R. Krishnamachariyar, M.A. I inspected the building and the library and had an interview with the Principal and the members of the staff entrusted with the teaching of the subject.

Teaching staff consists of (1) a pandit, Mr. A. Venkateswara Sastry, who is a good scholar in Telugu and has passed the Matriculation of the Madras University, and (2) a Master of Arts in English, Mr. B. Seshagiri Rao, who has made a special study of Telugu and is conversant with modern European methods of criticism and research. The latter is proposed to be put in special charge of the teaching of the history of Telugu language.

A room on the second floor measuring 22' x 15' which can accommodate about thirty-five students, well ventilated and lighted, is set apart for the Telugu class.

The library has an excellent collection of Sanskrit and Telugu books as well as English books dealing with oriental subjects and is being further strengthened.

I am satisfied that the Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, is quite fitted to prepare students in Telugu combined with Sanskrit for the B.A. degree pass course, group (vi).

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 3rd October 1911 adopted the reports and resolved to recommend the Senate to record its opinion that the application for affiliation may be granted by Government.
