From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 6th November 1911, No. 5579.

The proposals of the Director of Public Instruction may, it is submitted, be accepted.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval. If approved, it may issue with the concurrence of the Financial Department.

S.R.R.—21-11-11.

From the proposition statement it is seen that the lowest pay of a teacher in the Ganjam agency is Rs. 10 and no reason has been given by the Director of Public Instruction why a pay of Rs. 12 has been recommended in this case. But perhaps in view of the policy of the department to raise the pay of the elementary trained teacher to Rs. 12, the Director of Public Instruction's proposal may be accepted.

The draft may be sent to Judicial and Financial for acceptance.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Director of Public Instruction has not advanced any reason for proposing the higher rate of pay Rs. 12, and Educational are apparently satisfied of the necessity for the higher rate. But it is submitted for orders whether the increase of Rs. 2 over the lowest rate (Rs. 10) may not be in the shape of a local* allowance, as in the case of the second assistant in the Government Girls' School, Bhadrachalam.

Rs. 10 is the lowest rate for teachers in the Ganjam agency—vide also paragraph 3 of Financial note, dated 20th August 1910, on page 2 of notes to G.O. No. 537, Educational, dated 9th September 1910.

* Vide Financial Department note, dated 18th July 1910, and Honourable Member's note, dated 19th July 1910, on pages 2 and 3 of notes to G.O. No. 435, Educational, dated 25th July 1910.

2. The extra cost involved is Rs. 48 * per mensem or Rs. 576 per annum. The charge will be incurred only next year and the Director of Public Instruction states that the charge may be met from the lump provision of Rs. 1,474 made for the purpose in the budget estimate for 1912-13. The Accountant-General states that the necessary provision may be made in the details of the estimates by correspondingly reducing the lump provision. On receipt of the Educational Department Proceedings in this case the necessary detailed provision may, it is submitted, be made as indicated by the Accountant-General.

* 4 teachers at Rs. 12 per mensem.

Sanction takes effect from 1st March 1912.

Last paragraph in the Director of Public Instruction's letter.

Paragraph 3 of Accountant-General's endorsement.

3. Subject to the remarks at paragraph 1 ante, the draft may, it is submitted, be accepted in this department, the sanction being registered as No. 213 of 1911-1912.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The Financial Department consider that the pay of the teachers should be fixed at Rs. 10 with a local allowance of Rs. 2 per mensem. But, in view of the policy of the department to raise the pay of the elementary school trained teachers to Rs. 12, it is for consideration whether the suggestion of the Financial Department may be accepted.

Letter No. 853, dated 2nd December 1911.

S.R.R.—15-12-11.

If, however, the Financial Department's suggestion is to be carried out, a revised draft will be submitted.

R. SUNDARAM AIYAR—15-12-11.

I think it would be a tactical mistake to prescribe that a portion of the emoluments shall be drawn as a local allowance in this case. For when the general enhancement to the accepted ideal of Rs. 12 comes about—as it is bound to do some day—there will be a claim for Rs. 2 more in the schools.

Will Financial please consider this aspect of the case and say whether they still press for a local allowance, in which event Honourable Member's orders will be taken.

L. DAVIDSON—16-12-11.

To the Financial Department.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

It is submitted that the view taken by the Secretary, Educational Department, at A in his note, dated 16th December 1911, ante, may be accepted, but the question arises whether it is necessary to fix the pay of the teachers at the higher rate of Rs. 12. There are 42 teachers at present on Rs. 10 in the Ganjam agency and it is for consideration whether this amount should be exceeded in the present case before the raising of the minimum pay of teachers to Rs. 12 is actually introduced.

Four.

The question of raising the minimum pay of teachers to Rs. 12 is one of the several proposals suggested to the Government of India in connection with the extension of primary education—vide paragraph 3 of letter No. 853, Educational, dated 2nd December 1911.

T.C.M.—21-12-11.

S.D.S.—22-12-11.

I venture to submit that it is better to give part of the emoluments in the agency to teachers in the shape of a local allowance special to the tract. This is the course followed in other departments. The pay in this case may be Rs. 10 plus Rs. 2 local allowance. As to whether the total emoluments should be increased above Rs. 12, this, it is submitted, is another question, with which we are at present not directly concerned.

C. REILLY—27-12-11.

I agree that a local allowance would be the more usual method, but it is not of much importance and we need not press the point. The draft may be accepted.

The draft approved by the Secretary may, it is submitted, now issue.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
