The Honble L. Davidson Esq. JCS,
Secretary to Government, Educational Department,
Madras

Honoured Sir,

I beg to submit that I was a local fund Homaster on Rs 40 per month for about 16 years and owing to the transfer of the Ramachandrapur school to private management I lost the service and am a teacher in the Vivasahigam High School here.
I lost two wives and have married the third. Funds and my circumstances are strained.
My son, Krishna Rao, is reading in the Senior Intermediate class in the local Government College and has applied for the ensuing Intermediate Examination. I find it difficult to pay his College fee. Last year ⁱⁿ I petitioned the Director of Public Instruction for a free scholarship. ~~As~~ I was required to apply to the Principal of the local College, which I did, but nothing is come of it. I have an idea of having my son educated until he becomes a B.A., through the kind help of the paternal Govern-ment, the Lord has so graciously blessed us with. I, therefore, pray that the Honble Government may be pleased to favor my son with a free scholarship.

As the fee for the next ^{term} ~~intermediate~~ is to be paid in about 10 days, the favoring early order is respectfully solicited.

I also request the favor of Government perusing what is written on the other side, which will give them an idea of myself.

I beg to remain,
Your most obedient servant,
Velala Ramadas
