NOTE FILE.

C. No. 2910 From the S.G. of Police No 923, dated 22-11-1911.

SUBJECT Temporary exemption of Mr. L. P. Swamy for employment as an Inspector of Police

F In G.O. 56 Col. d. 21st January 1908 the Govt. sanctioned the exemption of Mr. L. P. Swamy from the Matriculation examination for employment as a Sub-Inspector of Police. The S.G. of Police now proposes to retain him as an Ag. Inspector and applies for his exemption from the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, up to the ^{date of the} publication of the results of the examination to be held in October 1913.

2. In the first place it is not stated how Mr. Swamy whose exemption was restricted to the post of Sub-Inspector was promoted to the post of Inspector without further exemption. The date of commencement of the exemption now applied for is not stated in Col. 6 of the application. Again in Col. 9 it is not stated how long he has been acting as a 4th class Inspector. Mr. Swamy cannot appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, without the special permission of Govt. unless he is a probationary Inspector - vide note under clause (2) of Police Order

note (2) to art. 4 of the Special tests notification
H.

G 223 on page 3 of G.O. 1085 Ind. d. 6th August 1908. Even if the temporary exemption now applied for is sanctioned it is not clear whether the S.G.'s intention is is to obtain the permission of Govt. for Mr. Swamy to appear for the test or to apply for his permanent exemption on the expiry of the temporary exemption now asked for.

3. The remarks of the Judicial department may be obtained n.o. in the first instance as to whether the application will be supported in that department.

Under para (ii) of G.O. 1085 Just., d 6.8.1908, the S.G. could not have appointed Mr. Swamy, who has not yet qualified by passing the Criminal Test, lower grade, an Acting Inspector of Police. But the irregularity seems to have been due to the wording of Art 5(3) of the Public Service Notification which (incorrectly) conferred on the S.G. the power to exempt his subordinates until the publication of the results of the next examination provided the total period of such exemption did not exceed one year. In this case it appears from the Police Establishment lists that Mr. Swamy was appointed Ag. Inspector on 14. 6. 1911, so that ^{under the terms of the Public Service Notification of 14. 6. 1911} the Sd. was ^{not} ~~not~~ ^{wrong} in having exempted him and appointed him Ag. Inspector. However, Art 5(3) of the Public Service Notification has recently been amended and the power of the Sd. restricted to exempting his clerical subordinates. ~~The~~

2. As to the question whether the Sd's intention is to obtain the permission of Govt. for Mr. Swamy to appear for the Criminal Test, lower grade, or to apply for his permanent exemption on the expiry of the temporary exemption now asked for, it is submitted that the former seems to be the intention at present. Of course, if Mr. Swamy does not pass even in 1913, the Sd. may possibly recommend his permanent exemption then, but that need not be considered now. For the present, it is submitted that, for the reasons stated in Sir L. Forbes' note in G.O. 56 Ed, 21. 1. 1908, (viz "we can't get the appropriate proportion of European and Eurasian candidates without, I fear, some exceptions") this Department may agree to Mr. Hoquey being temporarily exempted from the Criminal Test (lower grade), and his being permitted to appear for the test during the period of such temporary exemption.

Quite a young man, I presume.
May be exempted. but the order sh^d preclude I.E. from coming up for permanent exemption if the inspection fails in the attempt.
