A
with reference to the notification published in f.o. no. 710 Edl dated 10-10-1911 please let me know whether "unqualified clerks" means any unpassed candidates, or only such unpassed candidates as can appear for the examination in question and qualify themselves;
e.g. Can the I. G. exempt a matriculate who cannot appear for the Criminal Lower Test from passing that test until the results of the next examination are published?

D. H. W.

Sub 2 powers.

2. The matter does not seem to have been decided before: but it would appear from the following summary that the J. L. can exempt a matriculate from passing the Criminal Test, lower, until the publication of the results of the next examination, although the man so exempted is not eligible to appear for the test.

W.

3. In G.O. no 287 of 8.5.96, the Board of Revenue was empowered to "sanction" the exemption from special tests "of persons in the same (Revenue) Dept" who propose to appear for them within "12 months". This clearly restricted the Board's power to exempting only persons who were eligible to appear for the special tests from which they were exempted.

D

4. Then in G.O. no 562 of 2.9.04, the D.P.O. was given similar power. ~~He then~~ In his letter read in the order he specifically mentioned the case of men who were not eligible to appear for the professional tests from which they were to be exempted. The power to sanction exemption was given & it was not restricted, as was done in

in the case of the Board of Revenue to men who proposed to appear for the tests.

F 5. Then comes f.o. no 757 ETC of 21.12.04.
In para 7 (2) of that order, the expression
"who propose to appear for them (Spe tests)"

Page 14 of f.o. 757 F "within 12 months" was omitted. This 21.12.04
must therefore be taken to have extended the Board's power to the exemption of persons who were not eligible to appear for the special tests. There is nothing in the f.o. to show the reason for the omission.

The power to vacate the temporary exemption from the special tests of unqualified clerks in the Police Dept was given to the J. L. of Police in f.o.

4- no 366 ETC of 13.5.08 & was reversed in
A. f.o. no 710 ETC of 10.10.11 and it is with reference to this power that the A. J. L.
of Police enquires whether the J. L.
can exempt a man not eligible to appear for the special test from which he is to be exempted. If as stated above, the Board of Rev & the D.P.D. have this power, it seems that the J. L. of Police also may be considered as having this power.

Re
22.1.12 You may telephone in reply
"The expression 'unqualified clerks'" in the notification published in G.O. No. 710 dated 10.10.11 "need not be restricted to the case of clerks who are eligible to appear for the examination." The essence of the clause is the time limit. ~~which~~

~~was the addition two years~~ LD.
24/11

P.B. I have discussed this with the D.P.I. to restrict the meaning of the multiple applica-tions to Govt. and promote centralization.
 The object of the clause is Decentralization & it might often happen that it was necessary to exempt an ineligible man until with the publication of results at the next exam-ination the qualified hands became available.

Ref: your reply dated 24-1-1912 to this office T. m dated 19-1-1912.

Please let me know whether temporary exemption granted to an unqualified clerk as per notification Bordered in G.O. no. 710 Edd dated 10-10-1911 necessitates the clerk's appearing for the test for which he is temporarily exempted.

Please see the notes recorded in Gons 71 & 10th 30th

A. January 1912. "Unqualified clerks" as used in Gons.

B. 710 & 10. 10. 11 was held to include

(1) Clerks who are eligible to appear for special tests, and

(2) Clerks who are not eligible to appear for special tests.

2. The I.G. of Police enquires whether an unqualified ^{clerk} as defined above who is exempted from the special tests until the publication of the results of the next examination should of necessity appear for that examination. The answer seems to be in the negative. For, though it may be held that the clerks in class (1) are expected to appear for the next examination and qualify themselves, the same rule cannot be made applicable to those in class (2) because they are ineligible under the rules to appear for such tests and the temporary exemption from the special test does not carry with it the privilege of appearing for it.

3. It is for consideration whether the A.I.G. may be informed in reply that the answer to his query is in the negative.

PP. Submitted that this may be done.

Ref your reply dated 3-2-12 to this office T.M. dated 29-1-1912. Please let me know whether temporary exemption granted to an unqualified Clerk as per notification ordered in f.o. no 710 Edl dated 10-10-1911 does not make the clerk eligible to appear for the special test from passing which he is temporarily exempted.
