GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

I.

G.O. Mis. Nos. 667-668, Educational, dated 23rd September 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Informing the Government of India that Mr. Braithwaite has been granted privilege leave and furlough for one year and six months and that his special duty can be taken during his leave.

II

G.O. Mis. Nos. 911, 912, Educational, dated 22nd December 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Enquiring when the orders of the Government of India may be expected on the proposal to place Mr. Braithwaite on special duty while on furlough.

III

G.O. Mis. No. 916-A., Educational, dated 23rd December 1911.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction telegram from the Government of India regarding the course of study to be pursued by Mr. Braithwaite during his furlough.

IV

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. H. SHARP, Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Calcutta, the 27th January 1912.

No.—235.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 912, dated the 22nd December 1911, on the subject of Mr. Braithwaite's deputation on special duty while on furlough, I am directed to refer you to my telegram No. 1834, dated the 22nd December last, which ran as follows :—

“Your letter No. 567, dated 15th August last. Braithwaite. Government of India have been awaiting communication from India Office. They are now asking Secretary of State to sanction Braithwaite spending some portion of his eighteen months' combined leave upon furlough studies. Study of Berlitz system is thought unsuitable by Education Department, London, who suggest period of study of direct method in some of best ordinary schools of France and Germany for study of direct method. Precise programme and period of study-leave and terms will be decided in consultation with India Office.”

V

Telegram—from the Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—the 27th January 1912.

No.—237, Education.

Please refer to this department telegram No. 1834, dated 22nd December. We telegraphed to Secretary of State on 22nd December as follows: Begins—“Government of Madras recommend that Mr. P. P. Braithwaite, Indian Educational Service, spend six months of his proposed leave of eighteen months on deputation for study of Berlitz system—see our Home despatch No. 6 of 2nd October 1902. We should prefer that he study direct method in best ordinary schools of France and Germany, details and periods of study being fixed by India Office direct. On these terms we support recommendation and request reply by wire.”—Ends. Secretary of State telegraphed on 25th January as follows: Begins—“Your telegram, dated 22nd December. Braithwaite. I sanction your proposals.”—Ends.

Order—No. 81, Educational, dated 31st January 1912.

Communicated to the Director of Public Instruction for information in continuation of G.O. No. 916-A., Educational, dated 23rd December 1911.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

- (a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.
- (b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.
- (b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public, dated 30th November 1900.
- (c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer-concerned.
- (d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.
- (e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

- (a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Deputy Registrar with a remark to that effect.
- (b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.
- (c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.
- (d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.
- (e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
