Madras.

16 January 1912.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department,
Madras.

Sir,

I beg to state that I was a Government Technical Scholar from Madras, sent out to England in 1908 for the study of Textile Chemistry, and to report that I have just returned to Madras from England.

According to the rules for the grant of these scholarships I am eligible for travelling expenses from London to Madras and when my passage was booked to Bombay I was given to understand by the Educational Adviser, India Office, that my travelling expenses in India would be paid by the Madras Government.

I hope, therefore, that you will be good enough to pass the necessary orders for the grant of the travelling expenses as detailed

I have the honour to be,

Sir

your most obedient servant,

V. G. Nair,

Vallizil House.

Parpanangadi,
Malabar.

C. No. 153 From the Mr. V. G. Nair No. , dated 16-1-1912.

SUBJECT

Travelling allowances of Mr. V. G. Nair,
A State Technical Scholar.

P

N

M

Mr. V. Govindan Nair was granted a technical scholarship in G.O. no. 426 Edl dated 1st June 1908. He has now completed his course of study and has returned to India. vide G.O. no-1 Edl dated 3rd January 1912.

2. Under rule 14 of the rules for the Indian Govt. Technical Scholars in England a scholar is provided, at the expiration of his scholarship, with a free second class passage to India. In the present case Mr. Nair seems to have been provided with a passage from London to Bombay and he now claims his travelling expenses from Bombay to his place of residence.

3. Under the Home Dept. letter no 510, Educn. dated 12th June 1908 a Govt. technical scholar is entitled to a single second-class railway fare, plus the cost of extra freight from his place of residence to the port of embarkation and on this analogy a technical scholar returning from England, ^{seems to be entitled} to a single second class railway fare plus the cost of extra freight & from his port of disembarkation to his place of residence.

G.O. no 491 Edl O
1-7-08

Mr. Govindan Nair may therefore be allowed his railway fare from Bombay to Parpanangadi.
