Read the following letter from W. Francis Esquire, I.C.S., Collector of Tinnevelly, to the Secretary to the Commission ers of Land Revenue, Madras, R.O.C. No. 2117/Acc/12., dated the 4th

An

deposited with the Accountant-General stands in the joint - names of the collector and the Treasury Deputy Collector, - Tinnevely, on behalf of the Hindu College, Tinnevely, under the sanction conveyed in G.O. No. 1040/Financial, dated 9th July 1885 with reference to the Board's recommendation in - its resolution No. 5638/Mis., dated 17-6-1885.

2. In his application dated 27th April 1912 (copy en - closed) the Secretary, Hindu college committee, requests - that this Government paper may be sold and the sale proceeds paid to him for the reasons set forth in the application, - namely, to enable the College to pay off a debt which carries the high interest of 10 per cent per annum. The contemporary papers on the subject belonging to this office have however - been destroyed and there is nothing to show how the collector came to hold the money of a private institution in his own - name. The Secretary, M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur A. Sundara Sastriyar was accordingly asked to say whether he had any papers to - explain the nature of the trust (if trust it be) or the con - ditions, if any, which are a necessary preliminary to the - Collector's agreeing to the sale of the Government paper. A copy of his reply dated 19th July 1912 is enclosed. He says that the only papers available with him are the accounts of -

NOTE FILE.

C. No. 2654 From the Board of Rev. Land Rev. No. 4128-12, dated 17-7-1902.

SUBJECT. Sale of an endowment of Rs 12,000 attached to the Hindu College, Tinnevely.

the endowment in question which amounts to Rs 12,000 was formed out of public subscriptions. In para. 3 of G.O. 485 Fml dt 15-4-1887 that, among others, was declared to be a public endowment which should not be sold nor given up without the formal sanction of Govt. The present proposal to sell the endowment has the support both of the Collector of Tinnevely and of the Board of Revenue. Prima facie there appears to be no objection to its sale and for the utilization of the sale proceeds in clearing off the debt incurred by the college. The sanction applied for may be granted.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval. It may be sent to Fml for perusal, though it is not altogether clear whether it is necessary.
