(Local, Municipal & Educational Departments).

Sir,

I request that you will be pleased, in view of the circumstances herein mentioned, to direct the issue of orders enabling me to draw the entire pay of the office of the Junior Professor, Law College, the duties of which I am now performing.

The Honourable Mr. C. E. Odgers for whom I am now acting is now devoting his entire time to the discharge of his duties as Administrator General, Madras. During his absence on leave in England and till the 9th of October when he returned, he must have been drawing half pay or furlough allowance from the Law College; but since his return he retains only a lien on his appointment in the Law College, does not perform any portion of the duties connected with it or draw any portion of the pay attached to it. Out of the sum that constitutes his pay, the balance left after deducting the allowances granted to me, merely lapse into the Government Treasury.

I have ascertained from the Office of the Accountant General Madras that there can be no objection, under the rules, to my now drawing the entire salary attached to the appointment.

I may also be permitted to mention that the Honourable Mr. Odgers has been and continues to be in receipt of the entire emoluments, including remuneration by commission attached to the office of Administrator General and that

Sp. case*

Mr. C. Kunheraman who is acting for me likewise draws the full salary attached to my permanent place - that of an Assistant Professor. Out of the three persons concerned in the temporary arrangement, two namely, Mr. Odgers and Mr. Kunheraman are being fully remunerated according to the scale fixed for the offices which they temporarily hold. It is only fair and just that I should be treated in the same way.

It may be necessary, I learn, that I might have to be appointed to act sub pro tem in order that I may draw full pay. As I am, I trust satisfactorily, discharging the duties of a Junior Professor; and no one else has any claim on the pay, a portion of which merely lapses to the Treasury, I submit that it is only fair that I should be permitted to draw the entire salary.

I request therefore that you will be pleased to order that I may receive the full pay of a Junior Professor and if necessary also to order that I may be gazetted as acting sub pro tem.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Paul Appasamy

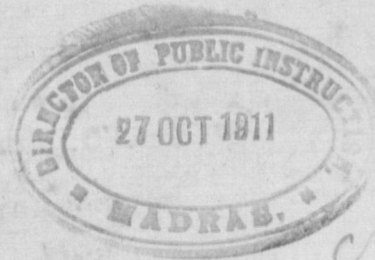

Ag. Junior Professor & Vice Principal,

LAW COLLEGE.

Madras, 27th October, 1911.

P.S. I am permitted to draw at present my permanent pay and 1/5 of the pay of the Junior Professor.

I do not see why affairs should not draw to full pay if it can be made available by an order appointing Mr. Odgers the subprotem Admin-
-istrator General. The latter post is permanently ~~vacant~~ vacant & such an order would not prejudice any change in its status which may be under consideration. It is judicial kind of say whether such an order might arise.
