2. Mr. PUGSLEY is a retired Battery Sergeant-Major, nearly 42 years old, and was entertained as an officer of the Preventive Staff in the Madras Custom-House in February 1909 when the only language Test required of him was the Translation Test from which he was permanently exempted in Government Order No. 209 Educational dated 5th April 1909. The rules for the examination of officers in the Customs line were subsequently revised and Salt Test E in 2 Languages was substituted for the Translation Test - Vide Board's Reference on C.R. 2869/Salt dated 13th February 1909 disposed of in Government Order No. 1337 Revenue dated 14th May 1909. Mr. PUGSLEY's exemption from the Translation Test presumably applies to one language only and under the revised rules he is therefore still liable to pass Test E in a 2nd language. The Board however begs to point out that the Officers named in the margin, who were entertained subsequent to the revision of the rules in May 1909 were exempted from Test E - a concession which would have been applied for by the Board and would have been granted by Government in the case of Mr. PUGSLEY also, had the rules then in force required his passing that Test. The Board therefore requests that Government will be pleased to exempt him from passing Test E. in a 2nd Language.
