U.O. note flagged (Y)

The D.P.I. has not submitted any remarks with ref. to the telephonic message ^{of Saturday afternoon} repeating the telegram from the Govt. of India. He has however reported in another connection that the present expenditure on aided secondary schools may be increased in the following ways:-

(1) by raising the allotment for teaching grants to secondary schools under "Grants-in-aid" by Rs 50,000;

(2) by raising the grants on behalf of buildings from one third to half the total cost;

(3) by raising the rate of grants to endowments from one half of the amount devised to a sum equal to the amount devised and

(4) by giving aid to provident fund for teachers.

The expenditure on aided secondary schools may also be increased by raising the allotment for special grants - that is, grants for furniture, books and appliances - In these circumstances an annual grant from the Govt. of India, exceeding even a lakh of rupees could be usefully expended on the improvement of aided secondary education. and the following telegram may be sent to the Govt. of India:-

"No. 9 Your telegram No. 29 education (dated) "third instant - Govt. can expend usefully on "improvement of aided secondary schools a sum of "about one lakh annually".
