ORDINARY MS.

G.O., No. 20 /

DATED 1-3-12-

[Despatch Abstract.]

Questions in Council.

Recording papers relating to the question No 123 asked by the Honble Diwan Bahadur G. Ramabhadra Nayyar and the answer given thereto at the meeting of the Legislative Council of the 14th Feb'y 12 revision of Educational Grant-in-aid.

The first part of the question is vague; it does not specify which provisions of the code are giving dissatisfaction. Government are, however, aware that the rates of teaching grants to elementary and secondary schools are considered to be inadequate and have for some time past been considering the desirability of revising the rates. The question of altering the rates of aid to elementary schools has been allowed to lie over for the present - please see the portion marked in blue pencil on the last page of the notes with G.O. No. 908 Edl., dated 22nd Decr. 1911. The file relating to the revision of articles 32 and 33 of the Grant in Aid Code ~~is~~ (teaching grants to secondary schools) has been referred to the D.P.I. and his remarks are - - awaited. The question of revising Chapter VIII of the Code so as to raise the rate of building grants from one third to ^{one} half the cost of the - buildings is also under consideration.

2. The following answer to the question is submitted for approval:-

dissatisfaction" or suggests the need for a committee provision. I also suggest the following answer.

The Govt. has no reason to suppose that the existing Grant-in-Aid Code has given rise to considerable dissatisfaction among the managers of private schools.

Clearly this requires no answer.

The question and answers as finally approved are as follows:—

Revision of Educational Grant-in-Aid Code.

Question 123. (a) Are Government aware that the existing Grant-in-Aid Code is giving considerable dissatisfaction to managers of private schools in this Presidency?

(b) If the answer to the above question is in the affirmative, will Government be pleased to order its revision after conferring with the managers of schools?

Answer 123—

The Government have no reason to suppose that the existing Grant-in-Aid Code has given rise to considerable dissatisfaction among the managers of private schools.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval.

The first part of the question is vague. It does not specify which provisions of the Code are giving dissatisfaction. Government are aware that the rates of teaching grants to elementary and secondary schools are considerably below the rates of the last year. It has been considering the desirability of revising the rates. The question of allowing the rates of aid to elementary schools has been allowed to lie over for the present. Please see the portion printed in the portion of the last page of the notes with G.O. No. 208 R.D., dated 22nd Dec. 1911. The rate relating to the revision of articles 22 and 23 of the Grant-in-Aid Code (teaching grants to secondary schools) has been referred to the D.P.I. and his remarks are awaited. The question of revising the rate of building of the Code so as to raise the rate of building grants from one third to half the rate of the building is also under consideration.

2. The following answer to the question is submitted for approval:—
