The Secretary of States sanction is contingent on the likelihood of a permanent vacancy in the Indian Edu. Service occurring in the near future. What course is there of this contingency?

The following statement gives the age and total service of the six senior officers in the Indian Educational Service:

Name.	Age.	Total service.
Mr. Stone	53	26
,, Middlemast	47	23
,, Jones	46	22
,, Hall	50	25
,, Allen	45	17
,, Duncan	41	17
,, Hunter	47	12

None of the above officers are eligible for a retiring pension as under article 465 of the C.S.R. such a pension is granted to an officer after completing qualifying superior service for thirty years. But Messrs Stone and Hall who have completed 25 year's service may retire on medical certificate. Mr. Stone appears however to have no present intention of retiring, although Mr. Hall who is on long leave, will it is understood, retire at the end of his leave in March 1913. Please see H.M's note on page 5 of G.O. R. No. 30 Edl., dated 23rd January 1911.

Thus

Thus if Mr. Hall retires there will be a vacancy in March 1913 but none otherwise.

6.3.12 Reference is solicited to DeBourne's D.O. of 24.12.11 on page 14 of S.O. No. 16 of 11.1.12 in which he stated that he did not foresee any permanent vacancy soon.

It is submitted that there is a slight difference between the telegram received from the Secy of State on 23.12.11 & the printed copy at P. The original telegram contained the following passage

"Is permanent vacancy Educational Service Madras likely to occur in the near future. If so. Pending decision Macintosh may be retained at Madras on the terms detailed in present agreement."

The printed copy has

"Is permanent vacancy Educational Service Madras likely to occur in the near future. If so what. Pending decision, Macintosh may be retained at Madras on the terms detailed in present agreement."

In the original message the word 'what' after 'If so' had been omitted. With the insertion of that word, there seems no objection to the draft order issuing.

The Secy of State apparently expects a reply to the message. Subd that he may be informed that a permanent vacancy is not likely to occur in Madras in the near future & that Macintosh will continue. ~~can~~ In sending this reply, the Secy of State may be addressed also in regard to his past service — vide B on pages of the notes in the linked file. ~~noted~~
