The Board, Sep.
Rev., requests Govt. to exempt Mr.
A. Greenwood, Preventive Officer, Madras Custom House, from passing Test E. The Board does not give any special grounds for the exemption it recommends.
It is merely stated that this case is similar to those ^{mess} of ^{Mr.} High & Homer, his senior preventive officers.
Where the similarity lies is not refd. To Mr. Greenwood has passed Tests 6 & 8 (higher), possesses third & second class Army School Certificate of Education, has passed Burmese (elementary) & has been permanently exempted from Upper Secondary Exm., His age & service on 1.4.12 will be 34 years & 1 1/2 years respectively. It is perhaps not too late to expect him to acquire a new language. If Govt. has laid down a rule that such an officer should pass the vernacular Test, it is because Govt. considers that it is essential for the efficient discharge of his duties that he should pass the prescribed test. The officer is living and doing duty in a place where there is enough of facility to learn vernaculars. Test E is not perhaps a very exacting examⁿ. after all, and in the opinion of Govt., a man of 41 years does not ordinarily reach such a stage of senility that he cannot pass a not very severe language test. It is then for consideration whether the case of an officer, just beginning service and aged only about 34 years & who has all the facilities for learning the vernaculars of this Presidency is in any way special and one deserving exemption. The Board has been recommending the exemption of one Preventive officer after another. It is submitted that the Officer may be made to make some attempts to pass the test before the Govt. exempts him permanently.
